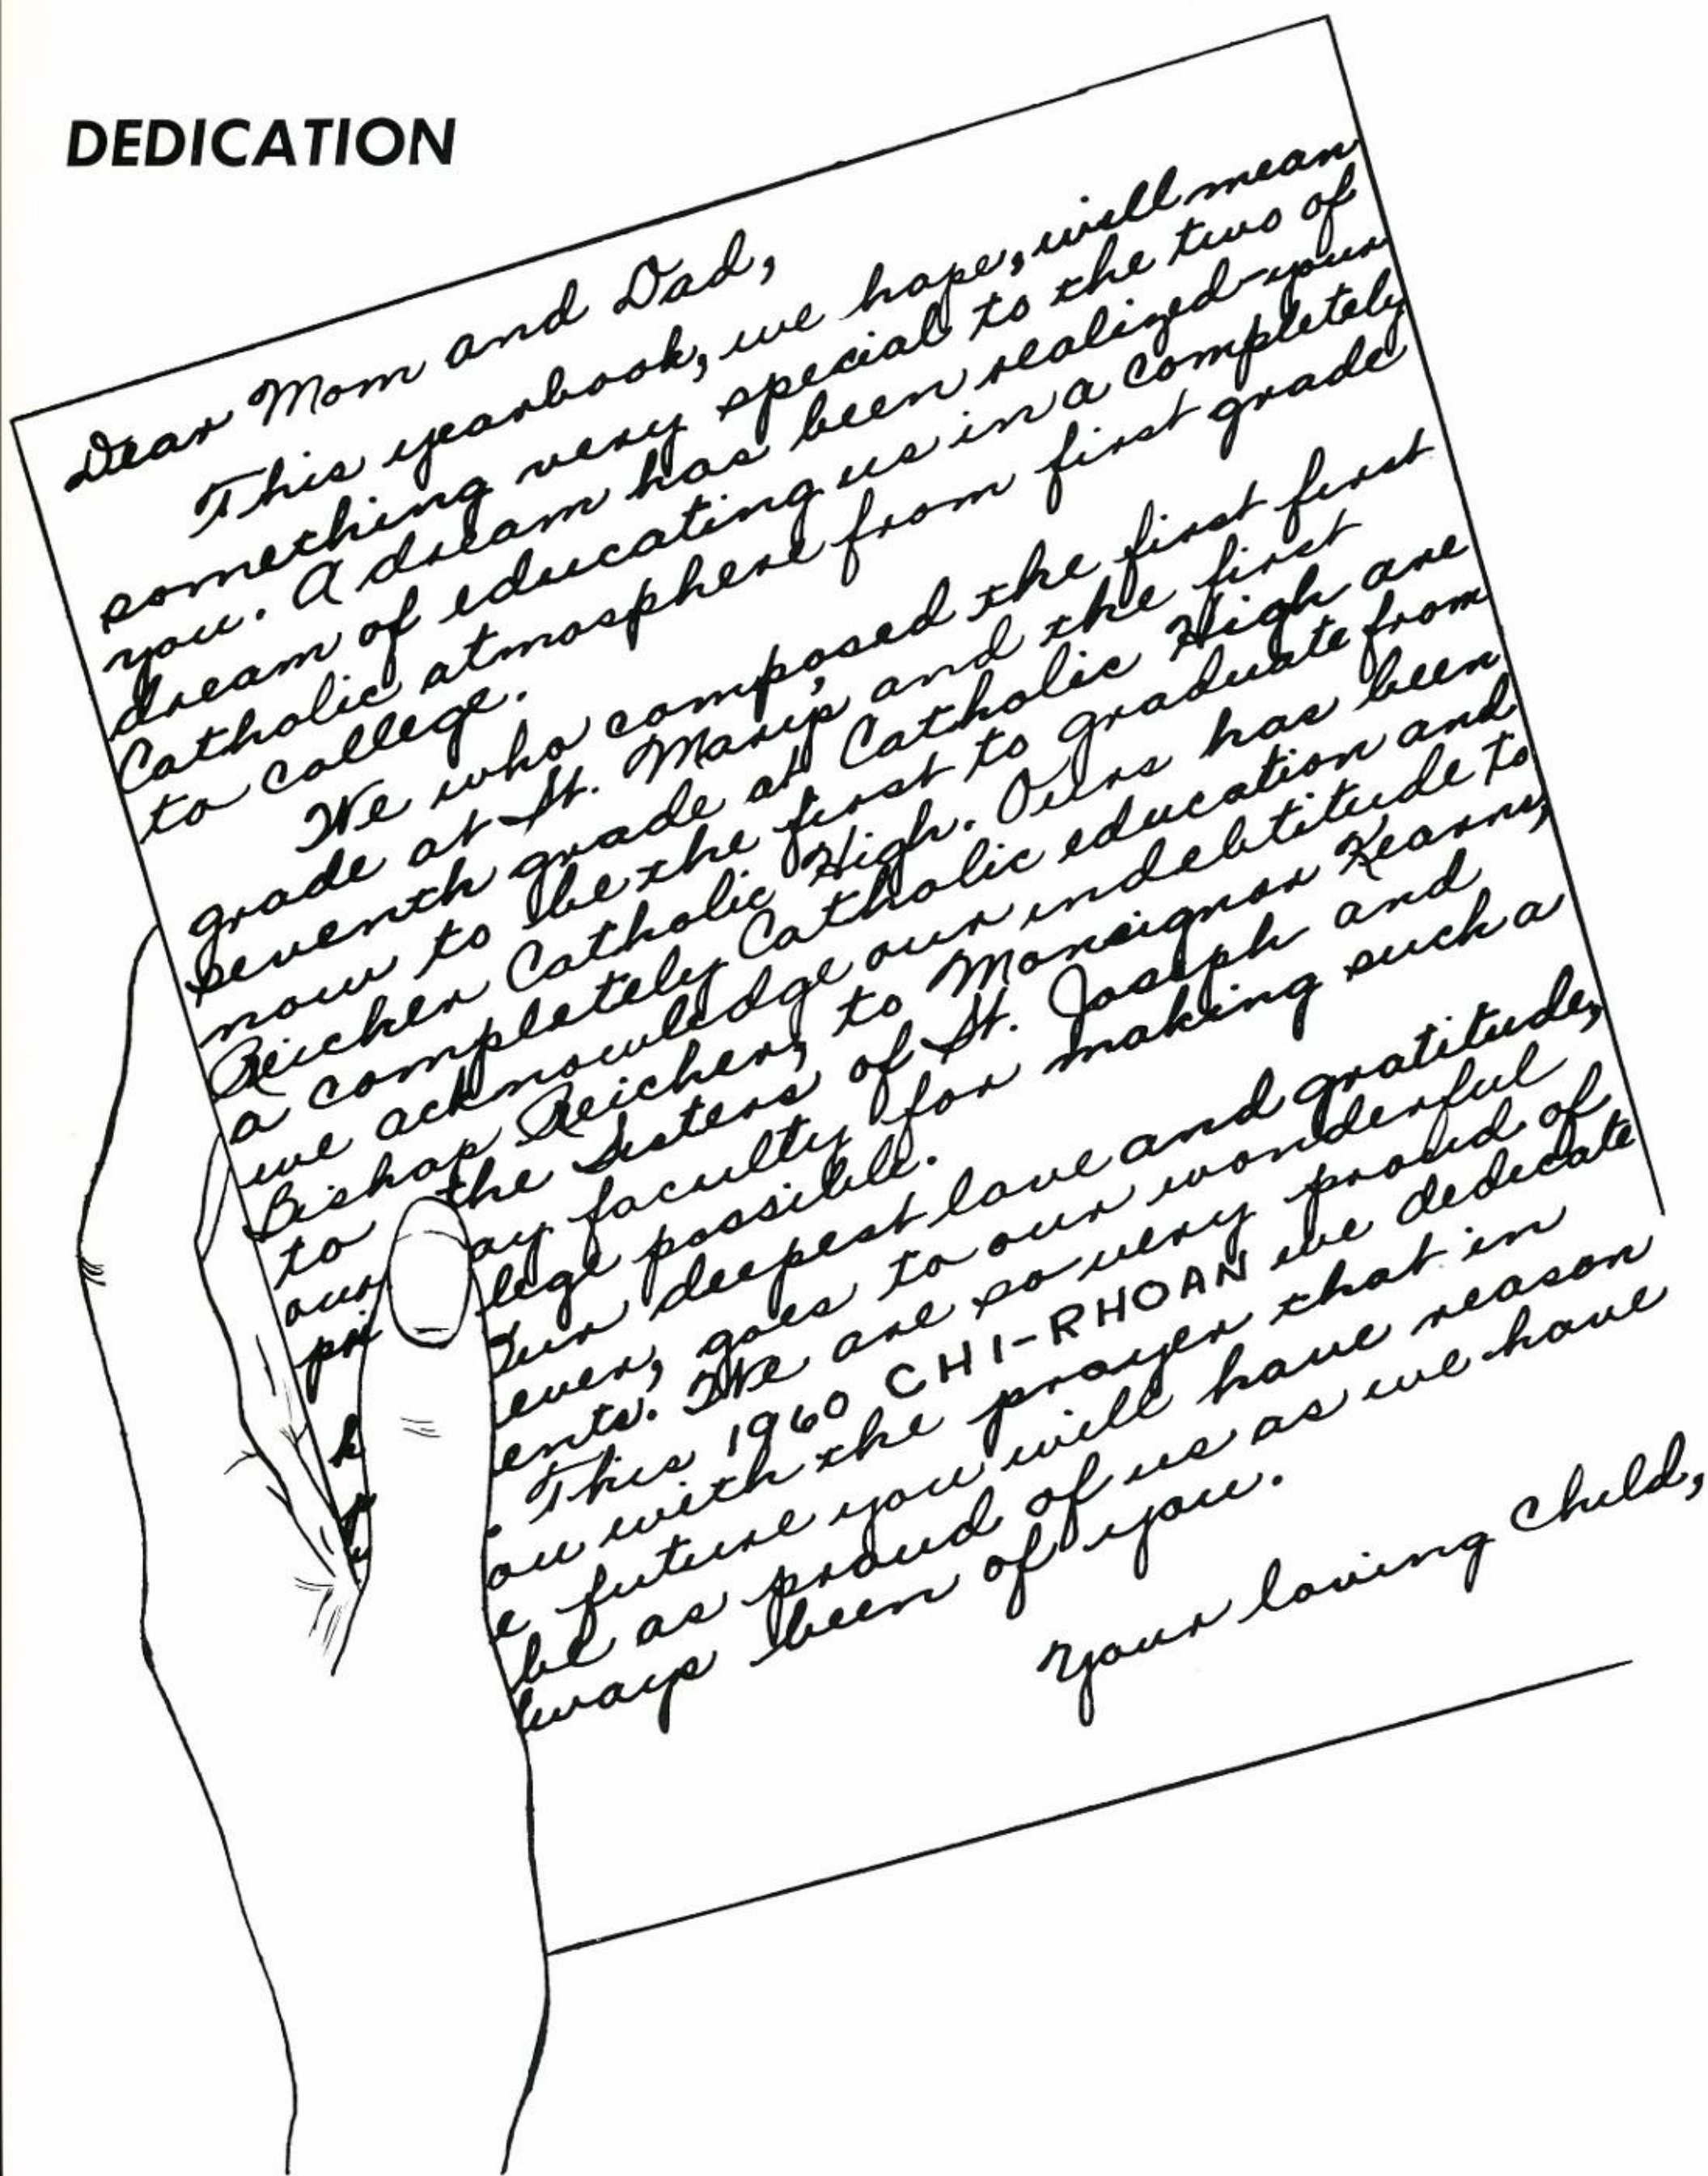
VOLUME IV

DEDICATION



Dear Mom and Dad,
This yearbook, we hope, will mean something very special to the two of you. A dream has been realized upon completion of educating us in a completely Catholic atmosphere from first grade to college.
We who composed the first first grade at St. Mary and the first first seventh grade at Catholic High are now to be the first to graduate from Reicher Catholic High. Our has been a completely Catholic education and we acknowledge our indebtedness to Bishop Reicher, to Monsignor Kearns, to the Sisters of St. Joseph and our lay faculty for making such a privilege possible.
Our deepest love and gratitude goes to our wonderful parents. We are so very proud of you with the prayer that in the future you will have reason to be as proud of us as we have always been of you.
This 1960 CHI-RHOAN is dedicated your loving child,

ADMINISTRATION

Seven years ago, Bishop Louis J. Reicher, D.D., first bishop of the newly formed diocese of Austin, Texas, showed his interest in and concern for the Catholic youth of Waco by encouraging Monsignor J. J. Kearns to build a high school for them. As a very real proof of his interest Bishop Reicher gave 13 acres of ground, the site of the former St. Basil's College in the northern part of the city, to the Catholics of Waco for a junior and senior high school to be conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet. The name Reicher was this year placed before the original name Catholic High at the request of parents mindful of a debt of gratitude to their bishop.

BISHOP LOUIS J. REICHER OF AUSTIN, TEXAS

OUR BISHOP AND OUR PASTOR

Right Reverend Monsignor J. J. Kearns, P.A., V.A., pastor of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption and director of Reicher High, opens the first faculty meeting of the year in his usual warm, friendly manner.

OUR PRINCIPAL AND OUR COUNSELOR

The duties of a principal are many and varied, but Sister Magdala remains composed through them all. Chief among her interests is the welfare - spiritual, educational, and physical - of each faculty member and student at Reicher High.

SISTER MARY MAGDALA, C.S.J.

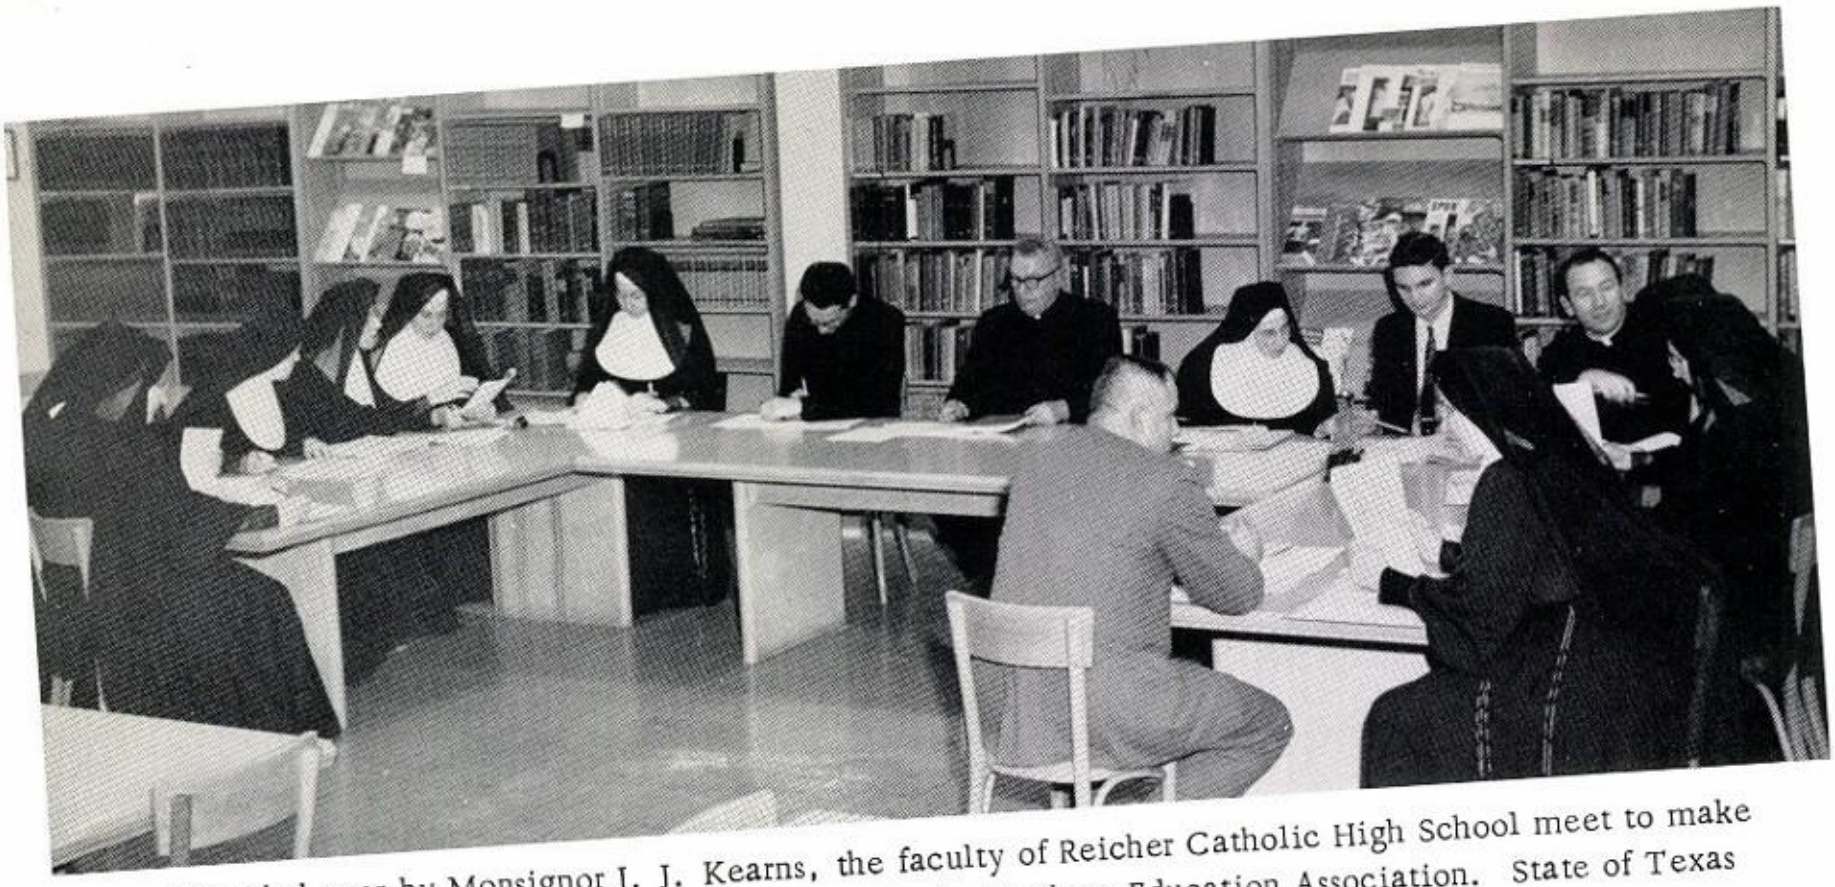
REVEREND MARK DEERING

Father Deering is Reicher High's counselor-at-large, junior and senior religion instructor, and chief rooter at all athletic events.



'Presided over by Monsignor J. J. Kearns, the faculty of Reicher Catholic High School meet to make final preparations for attaining accreditation with the Southern Education Association. State of Texas accreditation was received four years ago upon graduation of the first senior class.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' Club interrupts its meeting to be photographed. Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Pres. (standing) with her fellow officers, Mrs. B. Callaway, Mrs E. Dulak, and Mrs. S. Saffle are in the foreground.

One of the four ticket-selling centers set up in the gym the night that Operation Stadium was launched by the ever zealous Boosters.

BOOSTER OFFICERS

Mr. Mike Kearney, Pres.; Mr. John Fullbright, V-Pres.; and Mr. Ed Jarvis, Sec.-Treas.; study the blueprints of the new football stadium they are having built on the north end of the campus. The stadium will be ready for the '60 season.

SCHOOL LIFE

. . . TO DEVELOP SOCIAL-MINDED CATHOLICS

Gus Rioja, exchange student from Bolivia, locates his native country for Sister M. Venard and some of his Sociology classmates.

These Junior English scholars agree that a check-up in the halls is "cheaper" than a check-up in class.

By word and picture these pages show that the education received at Reicher High School is firmly based on the accepted objectives of Catholic education proposed by the National Catholic Educational Association.

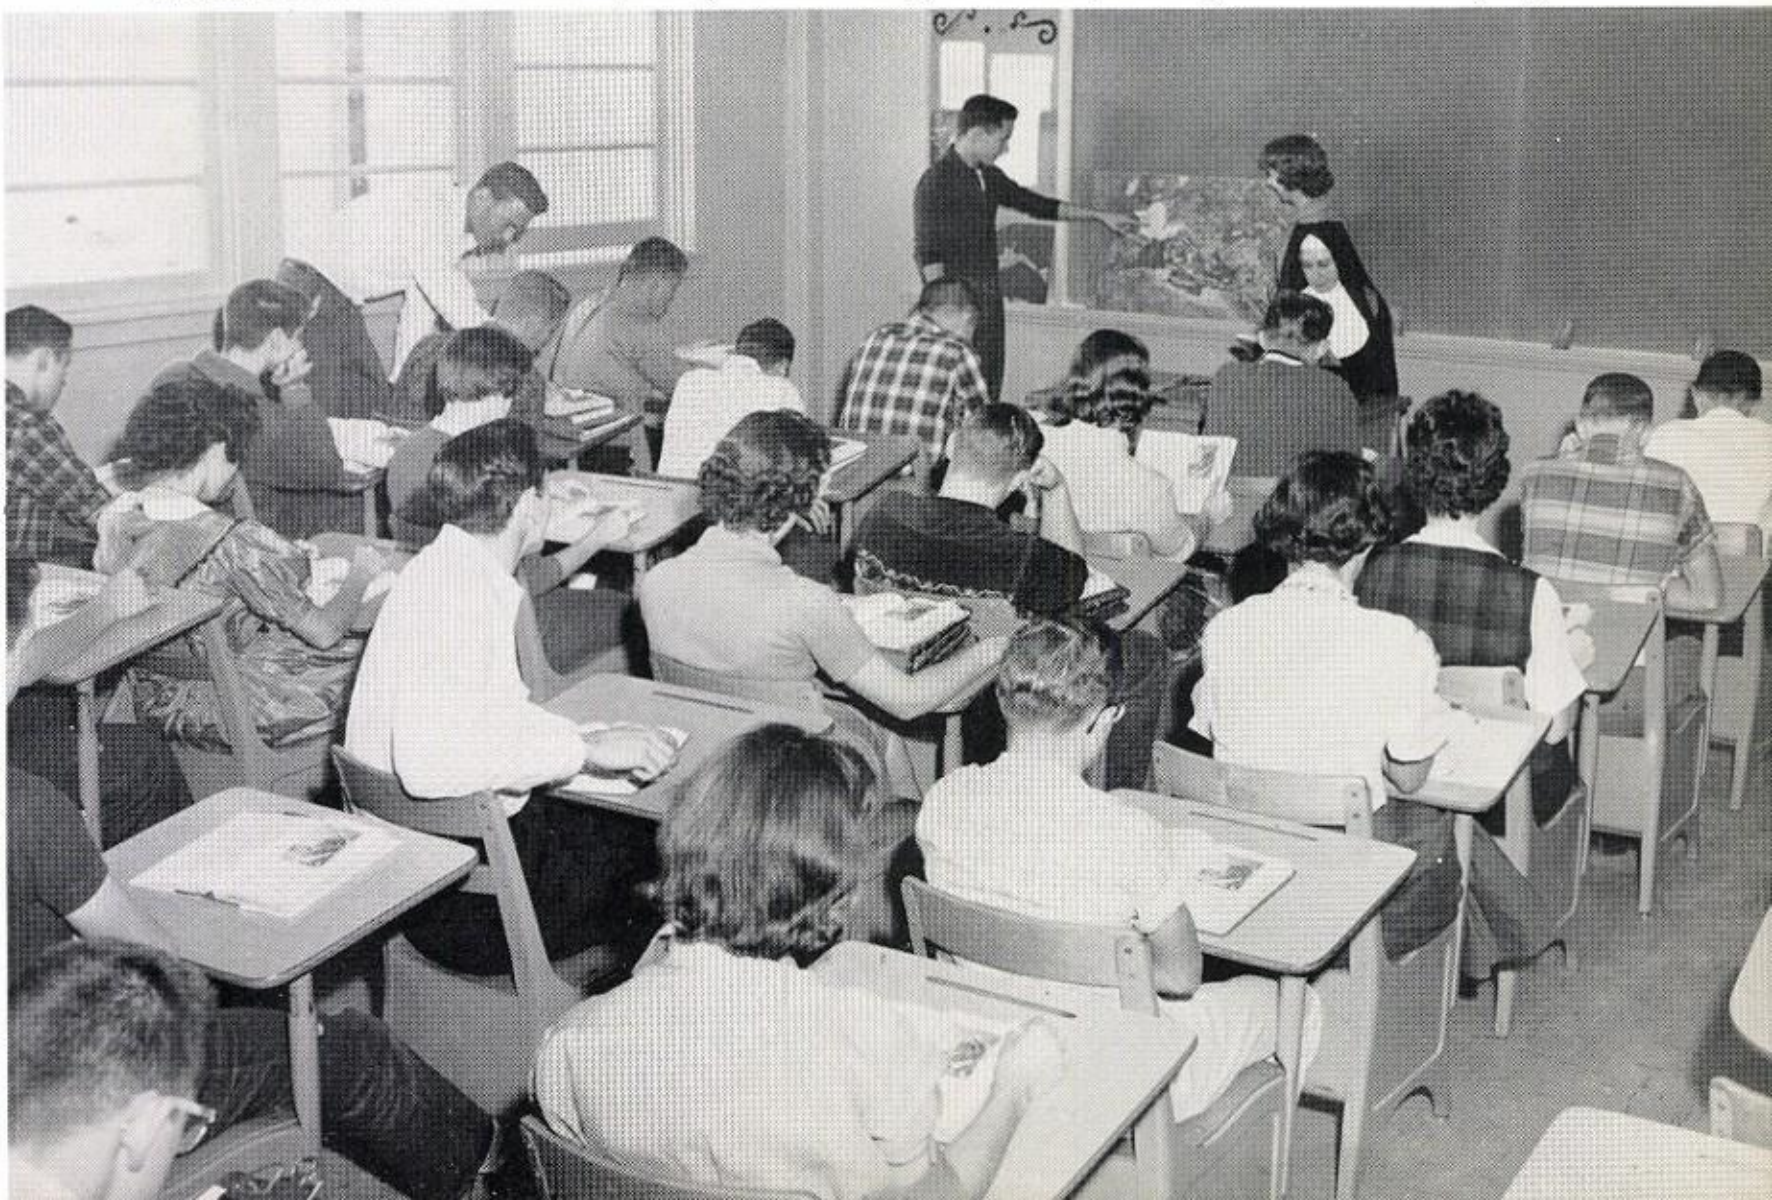
Evelyn Matusik, positive in her thinking, shows Mr. Vashek in 7th grade arithmetic that "really the problem was no problem at all."

Poise and self-confidence are displayed by Catherine Tate as she urges the speech class to contribute to the March of Dimes.

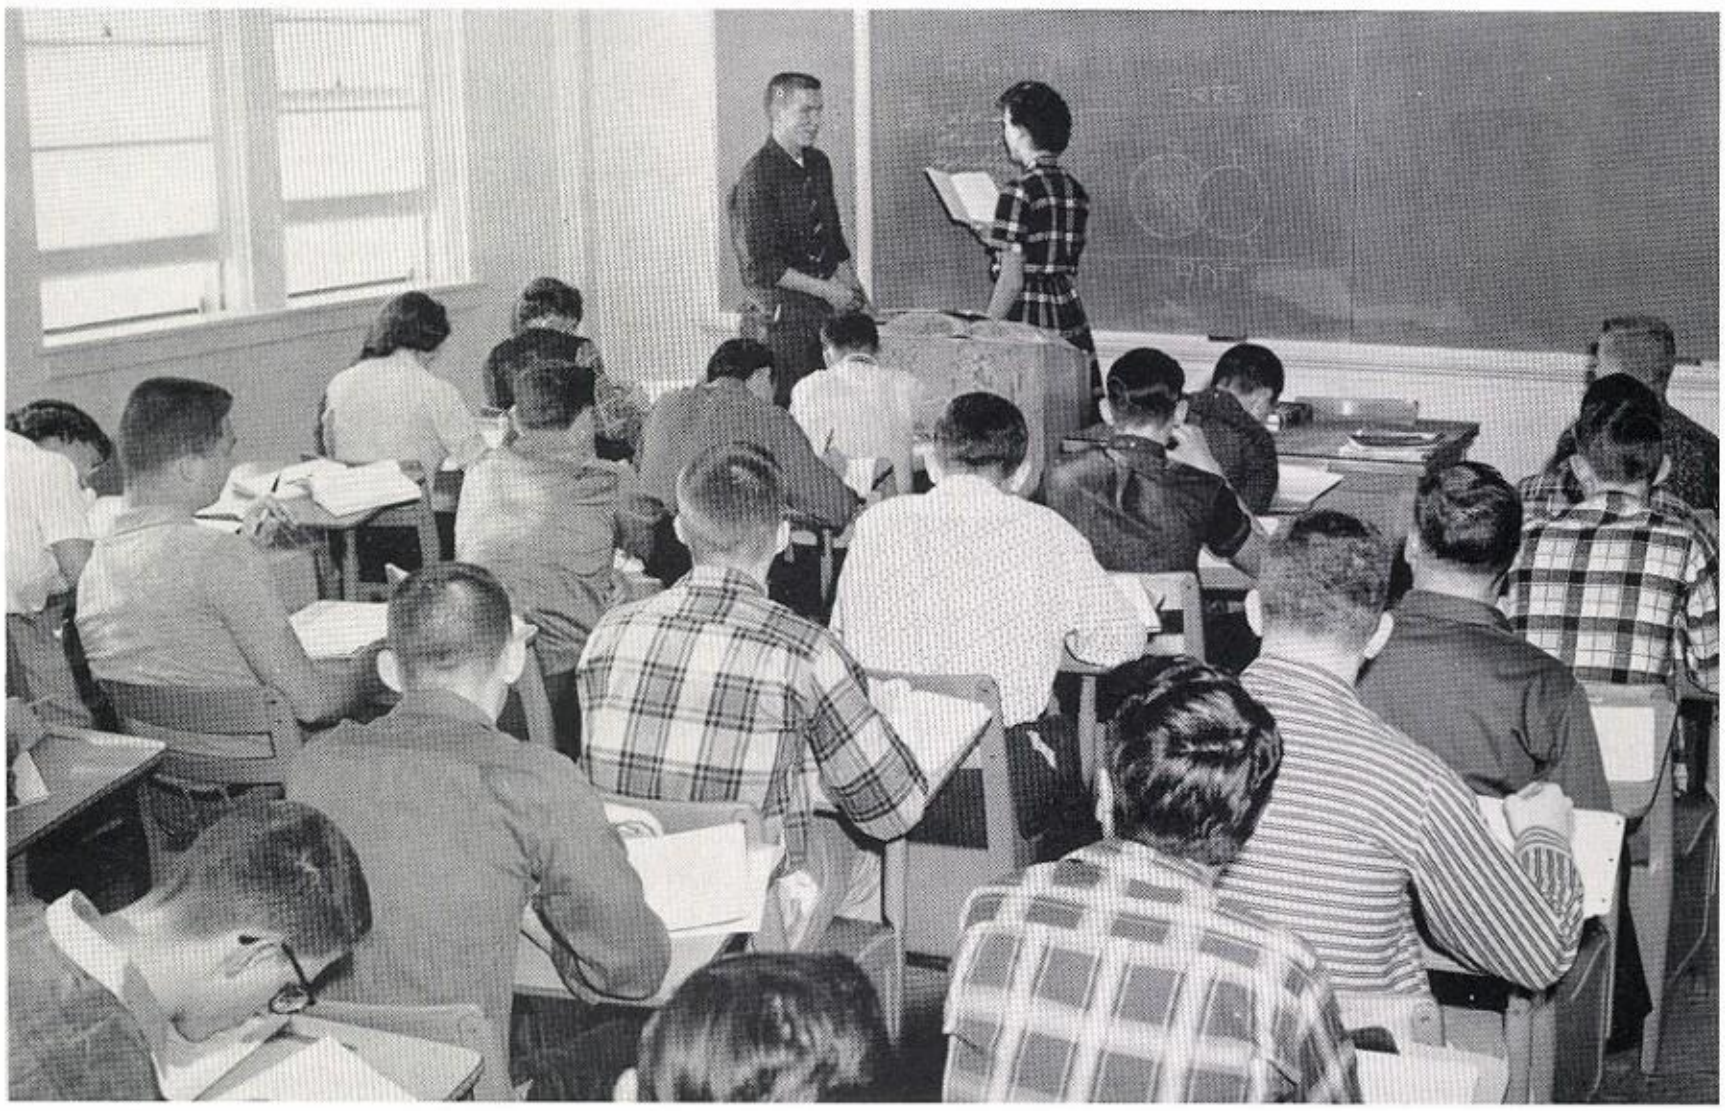
In World History one learns the truth of the saying that history only repeats itself and people never really change.

. . . TO DEVELOP CULTURED CATHOLICS

Latin II students feel that conquering and dividing Gaul was probably easier than studying about it.



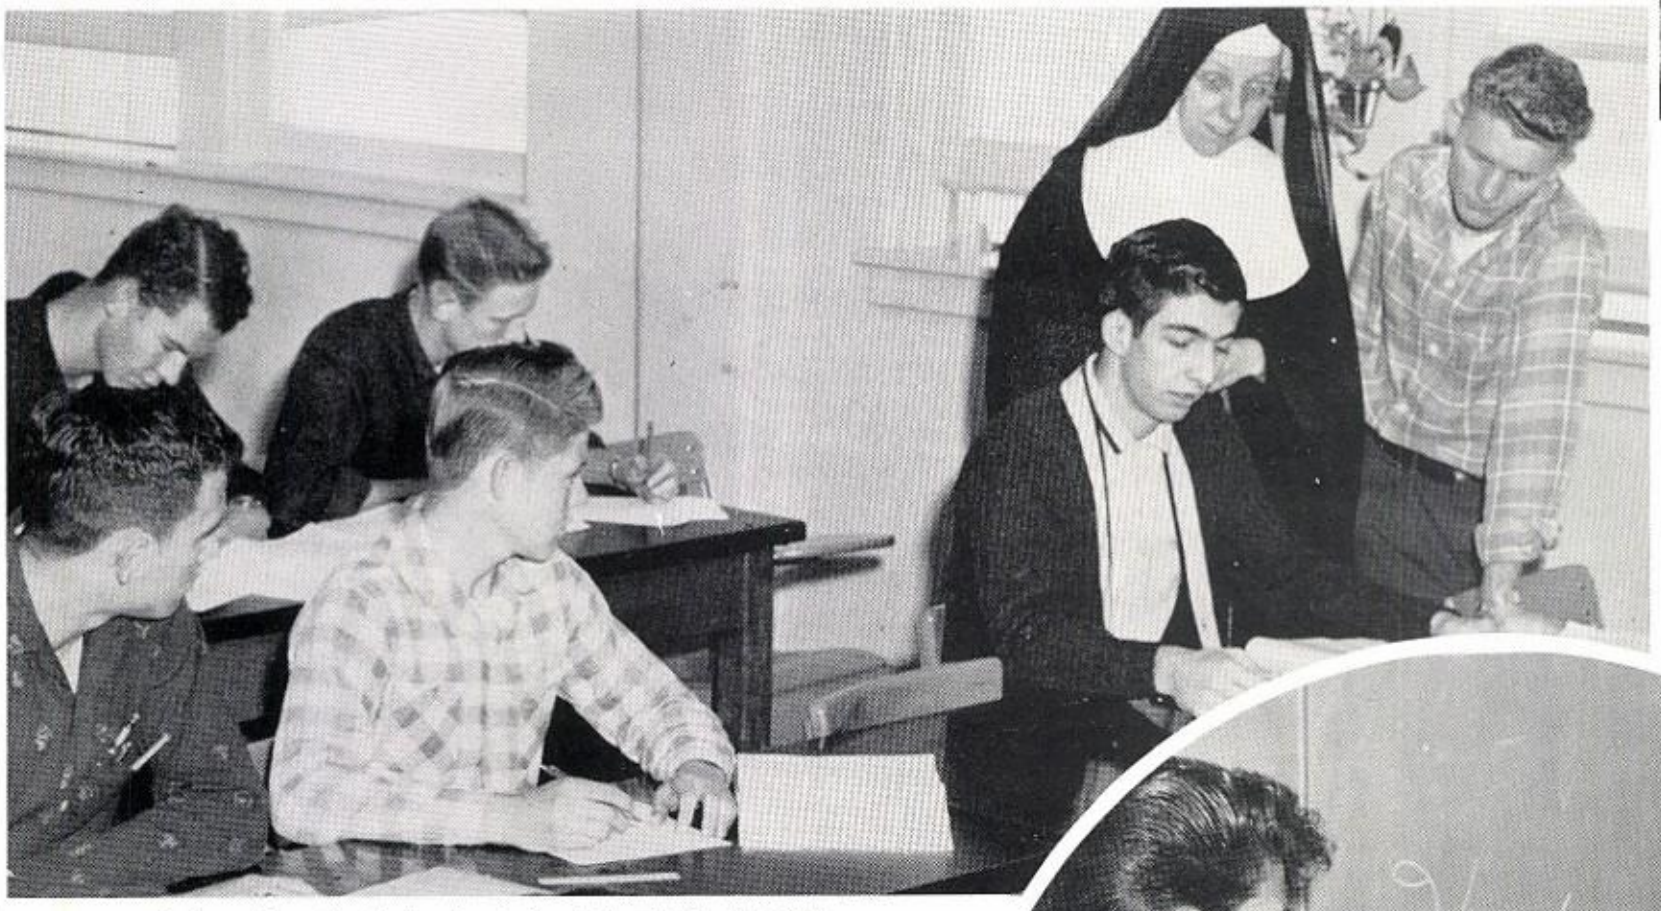
Well-lettered, original posters from the pens of the art class keep faculty and students abreast with Reicher High needs and activities. Sister Mary Agnetta studies Curtis Lanham's retreat poster.



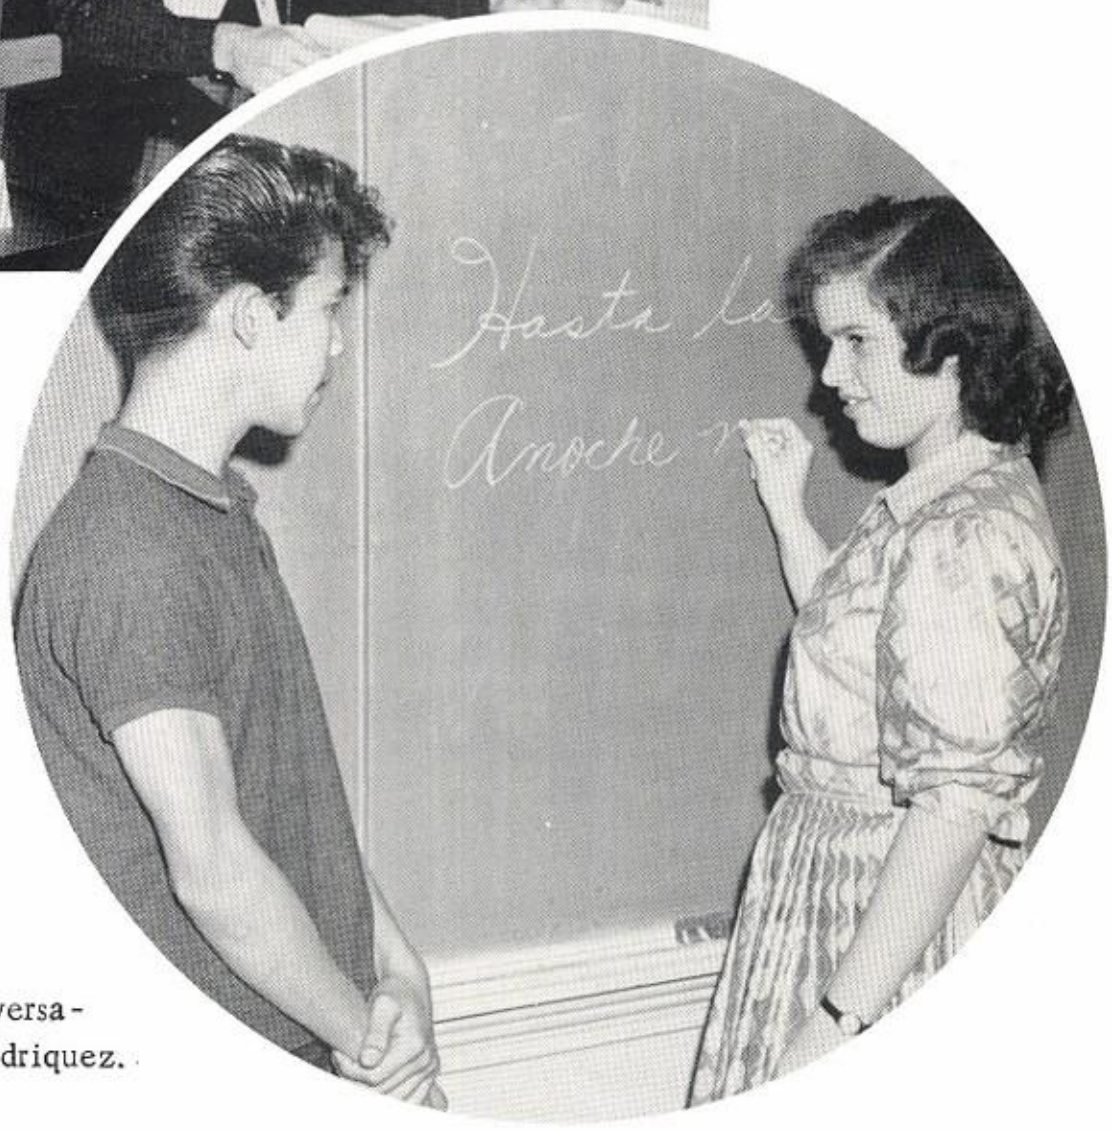
Carol Lanham and Frank Fritch demonstrate by the theory of sets the number of upperclassmen taking advanced Algebra in relationship to the school's total enrollment.

. . . TO DEVELOP INTELLIGENT CATHOLICS

Carole Mostyn and Karen Johnson are busily decorating heir classroom board, at the same time showing that even Christmas is not complete without Geometry.

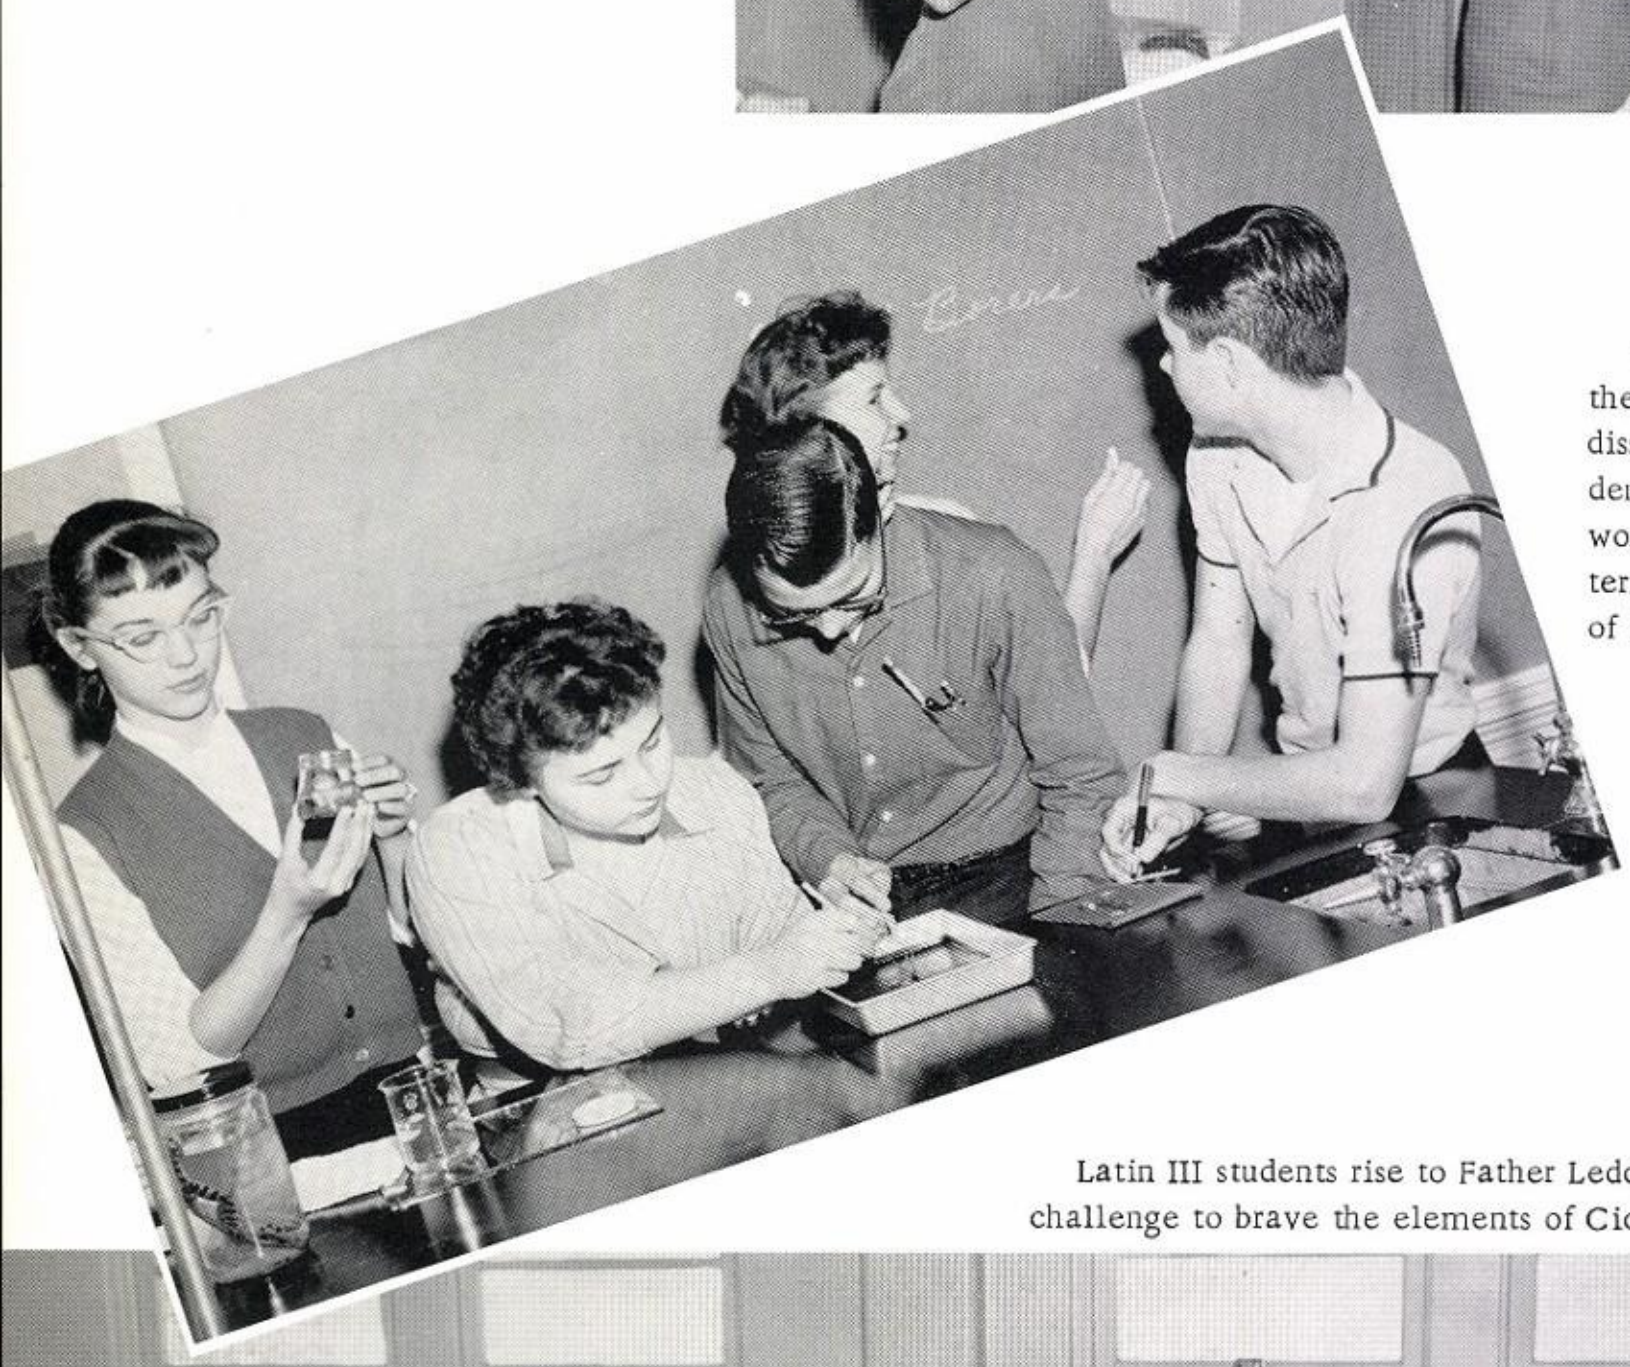


Balancing their budgets in later life should be a simple matter for these boys in Sister Noreen Joseph's bookkeeping class.



Harriet Isaacs learns to write conversational Spanish with the aid of Leo Rodriquez.

These biology students carefully examine all forms of life, from the most minute to the most complicated.



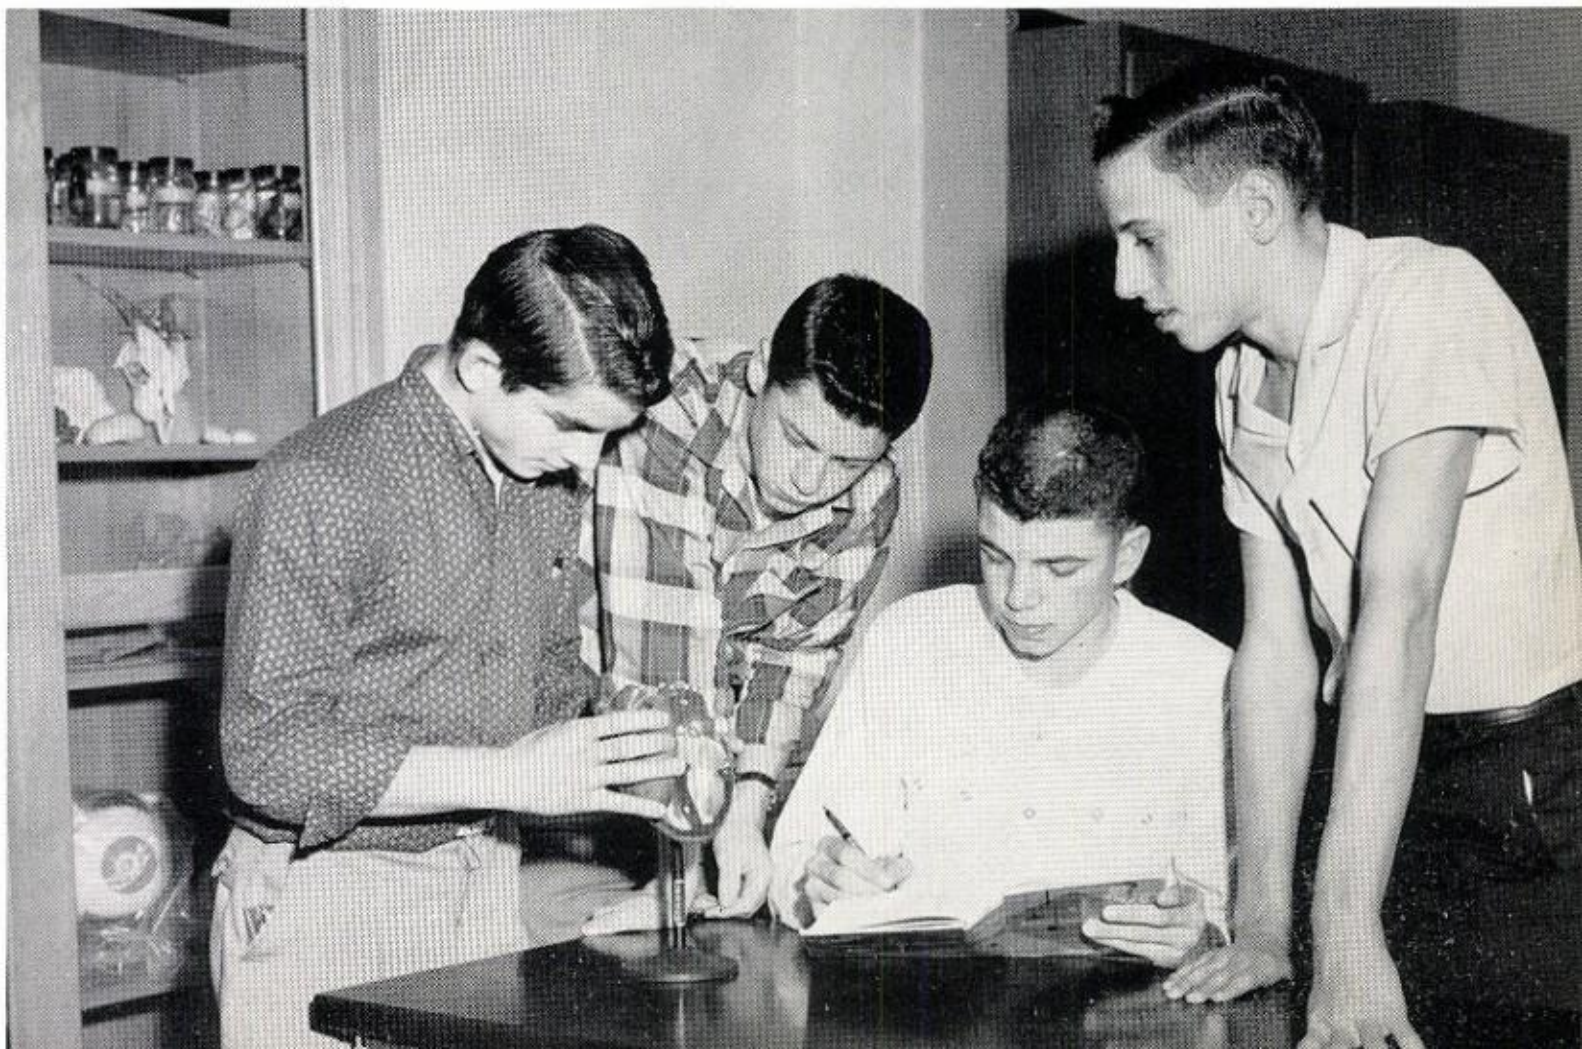
While demonstrating the vital importance of dissection, biology students prove that the earthworm is typical both internally and externally of its class and phyla.

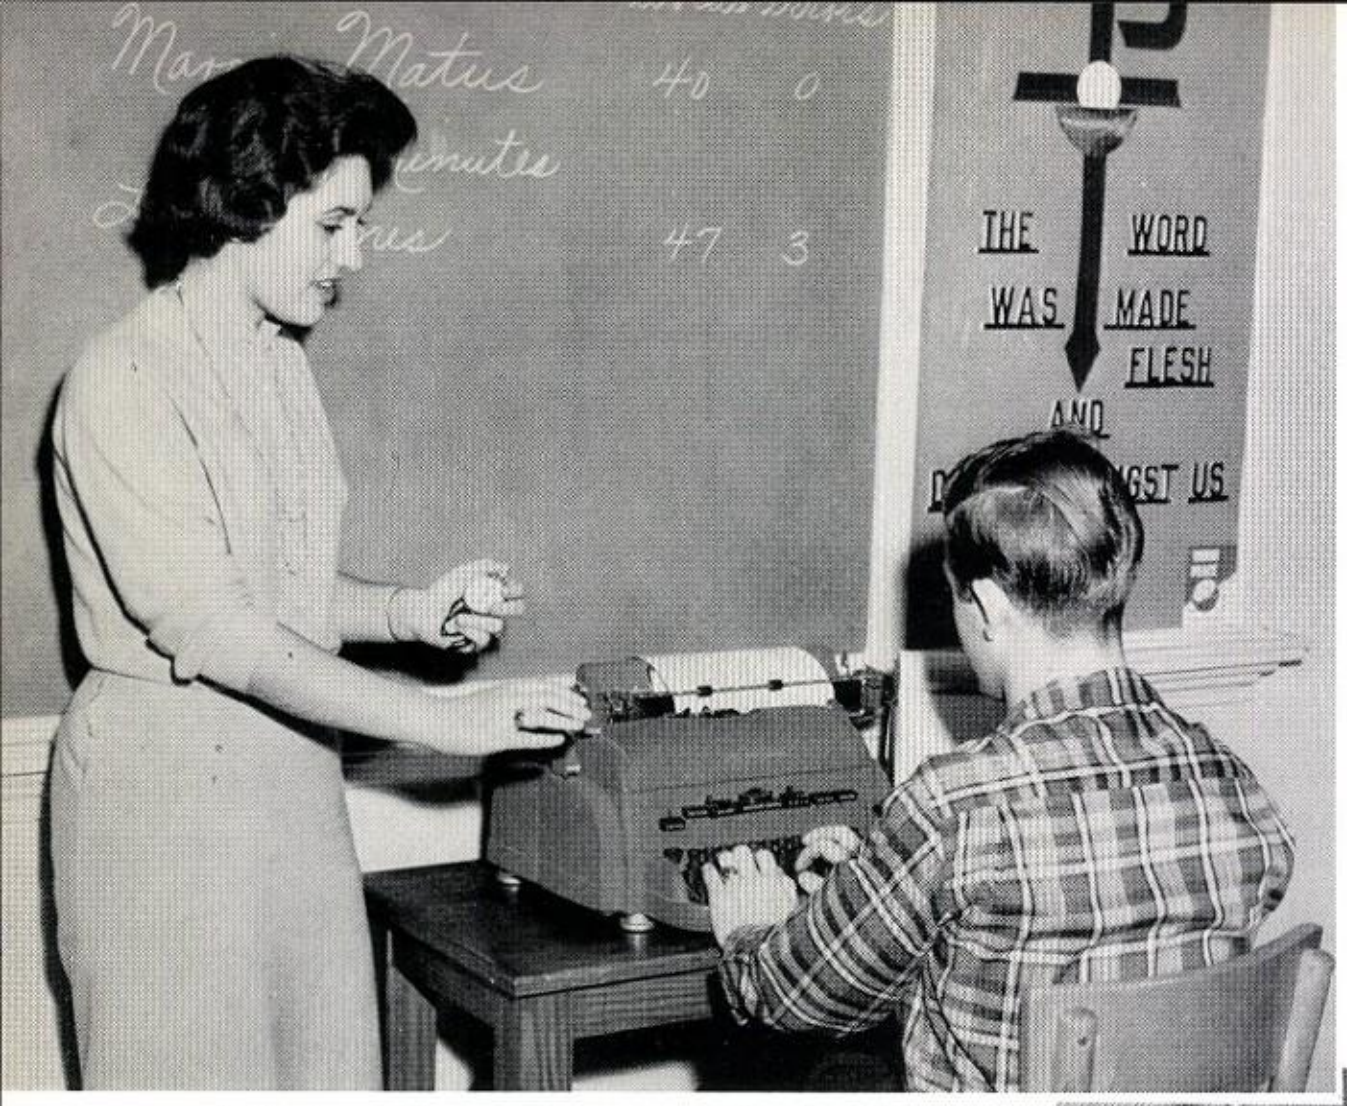
Latin III students rise to Father Leddy's challenge to brave the elements of Cicero.

Sister Margaret Ruth explains to these general science students that the principle of the inclined plane is fundamental in their study.

. . . TO DEVELOP VOCATIONALLY PREPARED CATHOLICS

The complexity, functions, and the care of the human heart are studied by the freshman boys.





Words fly faster than touch as Stevie checks Bill Matthew's speed on the electric typewriter.

. . . TO INSTILL A CORRECT NOTION OF THE DIGNITY OF MAN

Accuracy, patience and precision must be acquired (if they are not already possessed) before experiments will bear out the truths of scientific theories.

. . . TO DEVELOP AMERICAN CATHOLICS

Self-knowledge is as important to a nation as it is to an individual. Learning of our American heritage assures a brighter future.

The young Homemakers have learned well the "tricks of the trade" in contriving an attractive center piece. Other arrangements also helped to make festive the cafeteria for Parent Night.

. . . TO STRESS THE DIGNITY OF WORK

With the last dish and piece of silverware transported to the new convent, the "Enclosure - please keep out" sign marking the temporary home of the Sisters, can be removed and these girls can make use of Reicher High's excellent Home Ec suite.

SENIOR CHORISTERS

PRAISE THE LORD OF CREATION IN SONG

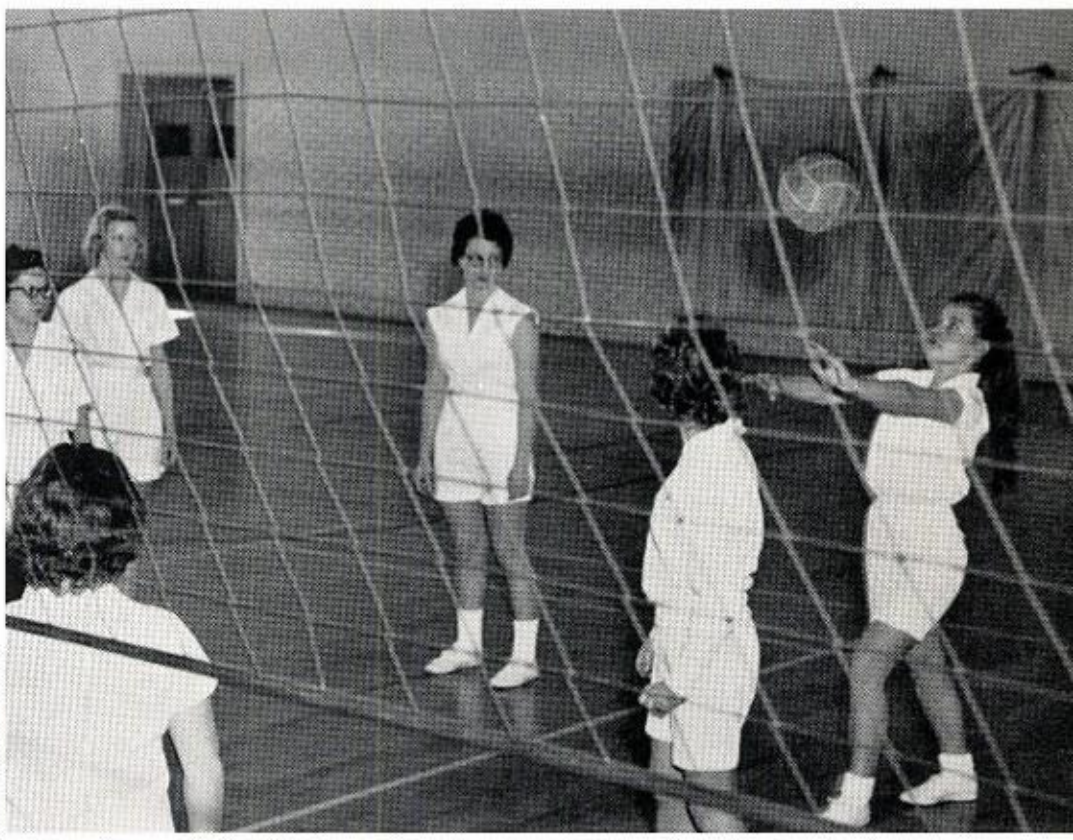
Under the capable direction of Sister Alice Josephine, the three Glee Club groups, senior high, ninth grade, and junior high, annually present a Christmas and a Spring Concert. In addition to these public performances, the choral classes study Music Appreciation and, of course, sing for the pure pleasure of singing!

A select group of freshmen sing a novelty number.

Beginnings are here made for a superb Senior Chorus in the future.

. . . TO DEVELOP PHYSICAL FITNESS SO THAT THE BODY MAY BE A WORTHY HELPMATE OF THE SOUL

What's the matter, girls, can't you wait till the tennis courts are completed? Mrs. Smith seems just as eager as the girls she instructs.



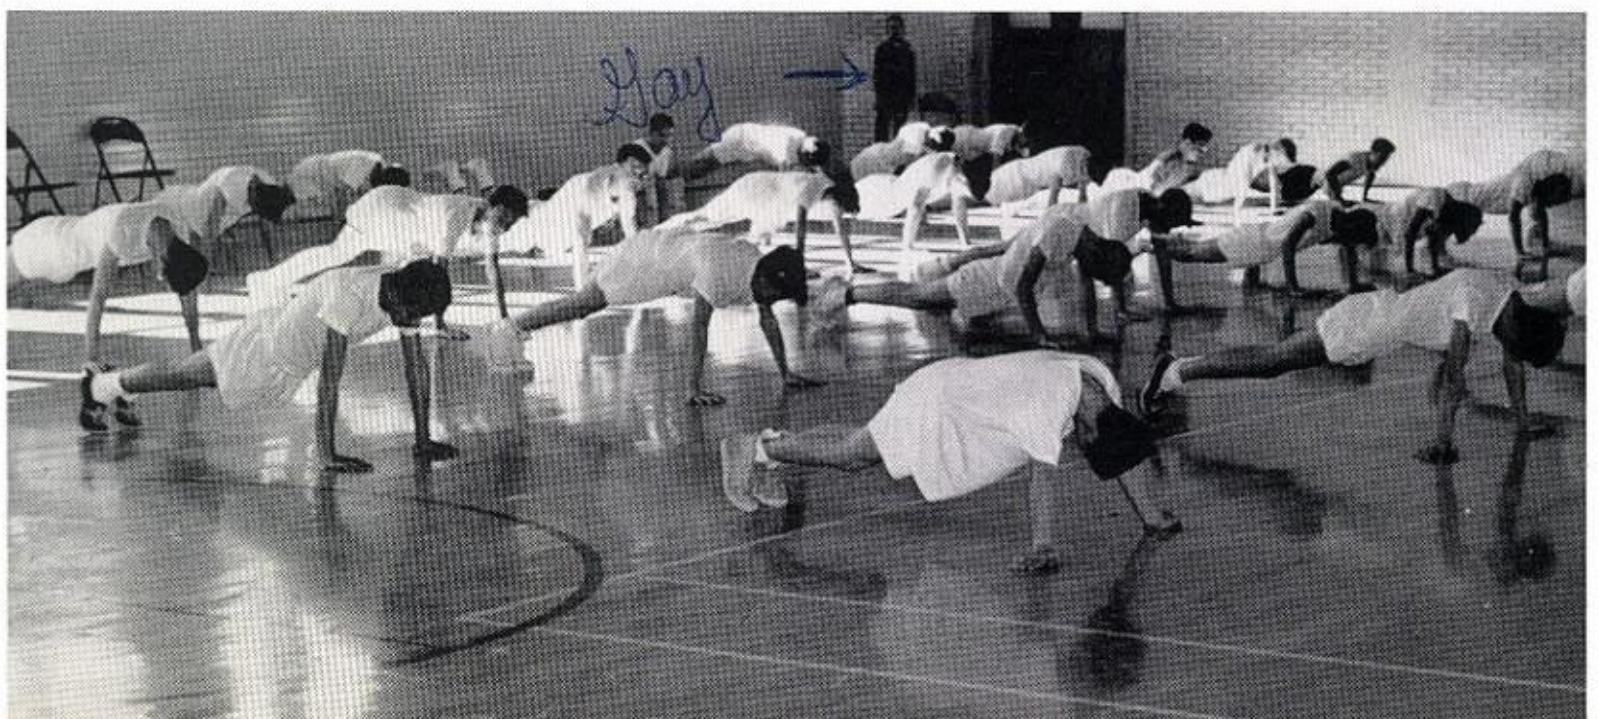
High set-ups and a spirit of cooperation usually result in a good volleyball team.

Peggy Brown shows her teammates that sinking a field goal is as easy as "rolling off a log."

. . . TO DEVELOP HEALTHY CATHOLICS

A good sense of balance (if not good sense) is necessary to build such a pyramid as these boys have successfully accomplished.

A race to the finish gives these sophs a chance to expend some of their physical energy.



A physically fit boy is a healthy boy, and what better way to test that physical fitness than to do 30 push-ups in succession.

ORGANIZATIONS

RHS STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Reicher High provides by delegated authority an opportunity for students to preserve democracy by experiencing self-government. Each homeroom sends its representative to the weekly meetings where with the Council officers they serve as a planning board to coordinate student activities. They promote leadership, school spirit, and social affairs on the all-school level as do the individual groups of officers for their respective classes or homerooms.

During the past year the Student Council sponsored the annual homecoming activities, arranged several assemblies - the first of which acquainted the student body with each of the school organizations and their purposes - gave a picnic for the faculty, and raised funds for the purchase of a beautiful ciborium for the new convent chapel.

LEADERS

Teaching religion every Sunday night to thirty boys and girls at the Waco State Home proves a challenging but profitable experience for the Sodalists.

SODALITY OF OUR LADY

Admiring the basket which won first place in the Thanksgiving food drive are Sodality officers: Catherine Kolar, V-Pref.; Charles Tusa, Treasurer; and Bill Matthews, Prefect. Ann Warford, Secretary, is missing from the picture.

TO JESUS THROUGH MARY . . .

Knowledge of religion is limited but the children's desire to learn is a compensation.

. . . TO DEVELOP SPIRITUALLY VIGOROUS CATHOLICS

A noon-hour chat revealed that even a Retreat has its lighter moments.

Colonel Wm. J. Clasby and Colonel Edw. Chess

Reicher High was privileged to have for Retreat Master, Father Wm. J. Clasby, Air Force Colonel and nationally known youth worker. Father Clasby's official position is Assistant to the Chief of Air Force Chaplains, in Washington, D.C. Father Ed Chess, Chaplain at Waco's 12th Air Force Headquarters assisted Father Clasby by being available for personal counseling between conferences.

BREAD OF LIFE

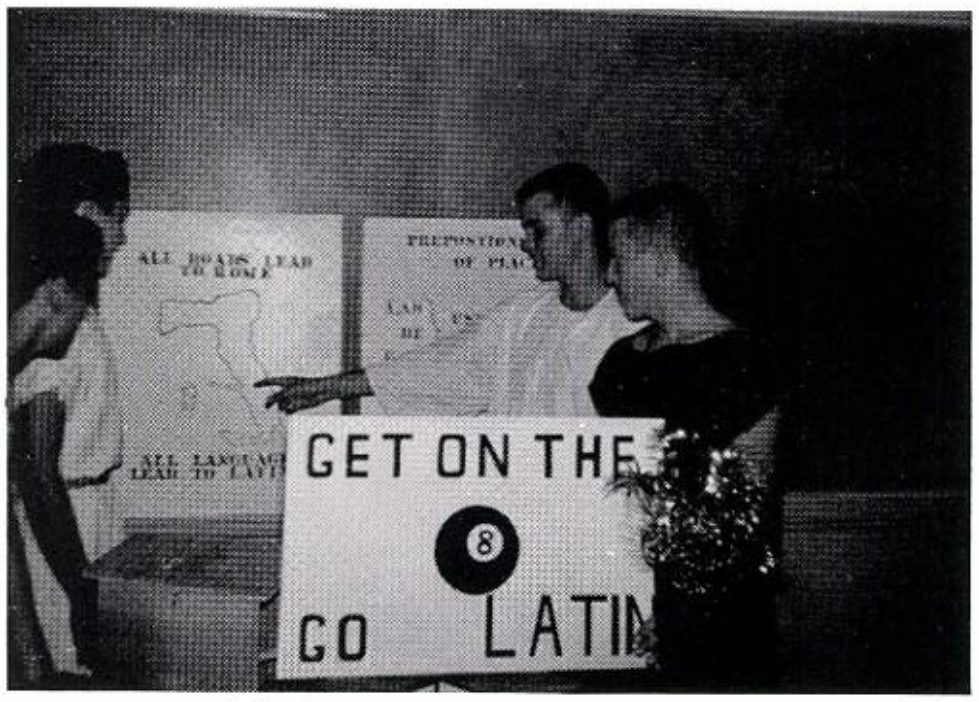
Daily Mass during the Retreat was a privilege and afforded an opportunity for the daily reception of Holy Communion.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

With an active membership of nearly 40 students, the J.C.L. is the school's largest club. Monthly meetings, a candlelighting induction ceremony, a slave auction, a Saturnalia celebration, contests in art, poster making, and vocabulary excellence are all a part of its agenda. Here President Ed Pugh discusses the J.C.L. scrapbook with fellow officers Ronnie Chauviere, Nancy Stogdill and Judy Hunke.

"FRIENDS, ROMANS . . ."

Ronnie Taylor poses in the Roman toga with which he hopes to win the right to represent RHS in the contest at the state J.C.L. convention at Port Arthur.



Toga-ed freshmen appraise the posters submitted in the school contest.

Freshman lassies prepare for the annual slave auction initiating them into the J.C.L.

SERVICE IS THEIR GOAL

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade is an organization common to all Catholic schools. Its motto - "Prayer, Study and Sacrifice" sparks the efforts of the officers in furthering the missionary activities of their fellow students. In addition to a weekly mission collection, the officers plan the annual Hearts for Japan Day to assist the Japanese missions of the Sisters of St. Joseph. The officers are Regina Moncus, Treasurer; Ed Jarvis, Vice President; Bob Landon, President; and Teresa Todaro, Secretary.

Want a bus chartered, a dance sponsored, school spirit roused, or game posters made? Just contact Cheerleaders Chuck Flood, Barbara Williams, Tim Tate, Kay Herring, Floyd Davis, Karen Johnson, or Bill Wachsmann.

Community, national, and international needs are the concern of the Junior Red Cross. It held weekly meetings, served at the district Red Cross Center and entertained at the V. A. hospital. Rosalyn Green, Sheila Scanio and Marie Bezdek are the current officers of the group.

John Mashek, Ernestine Matustik, Ann Sutter and Curtis Lanham of the Cougar Chronical staff discuss their plans for a printed newspaper.

PUBLICATIONS

Cougar Clippings prove quite a conversation piece for these seniors. Jimmy shows his favorite article to Malachi and Zoe.

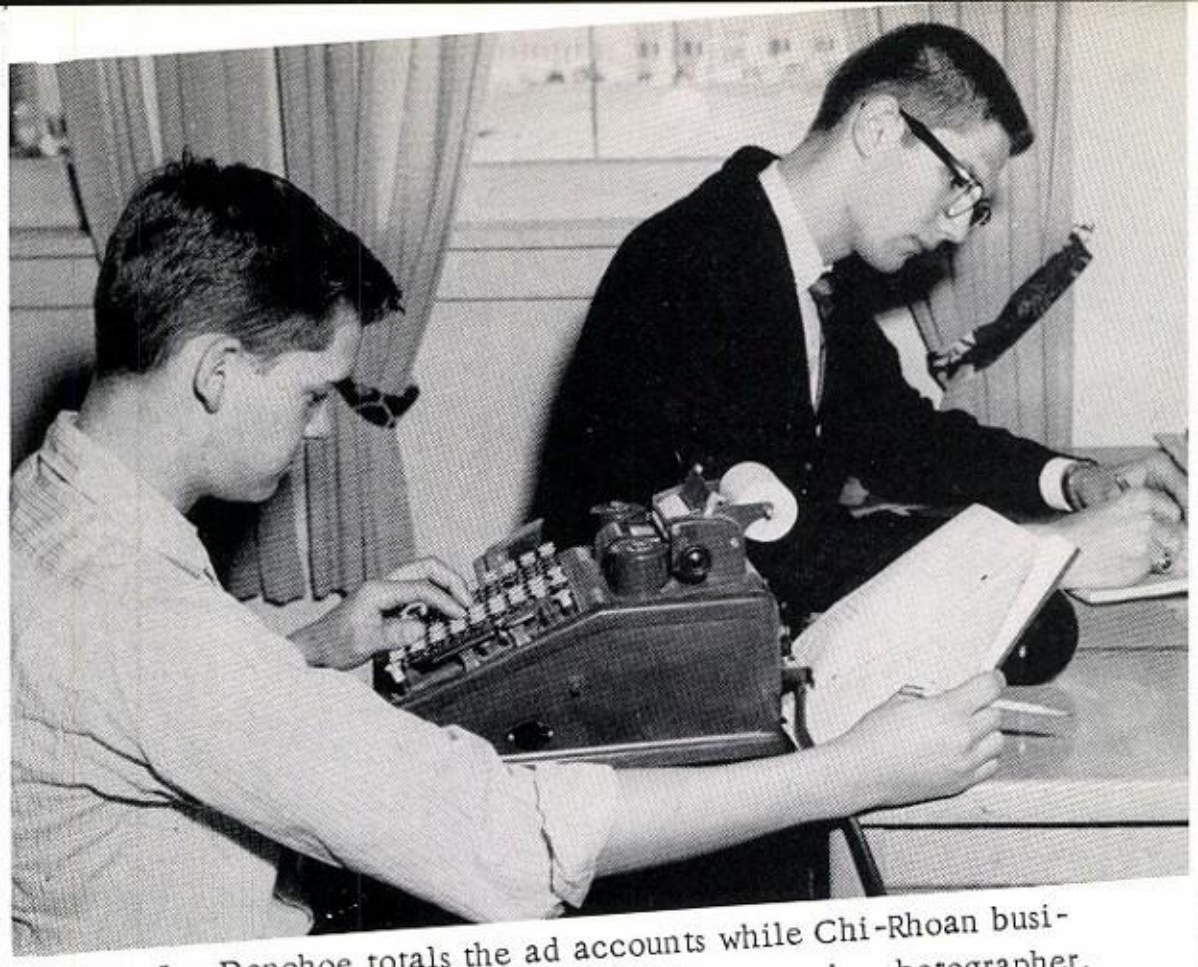
SHAKESPEARE ON FOOTBALL



Jay Donohoe totals the ad accounts while Chi-Rhoan business manager Bob O'Brien writes a check for the photographer.

Zoe Rhine accepts a down payment from Everett Shubert and Carol Broadway of the 7th grade.

Kathy Pugh and Peggy Bowen joyfully complete a tremendous job - editing the yearbook.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Too busy "to say cheese" are Carol Lanham, Kathy Pugh, Peggy Bowen, Jeff Farmer, B. H. Hensley and Catherine Kolar. With the assistance of Sister M. Jarlath, these six worked daily during a morning study period to publish the 1960 Chi-Rhoan.

With initiation's anxiety at a close these boys calmly await Coach Vasek's brief talk on the goals of the Letterman organization.

Coaches Vasek and Finn proudly receive their jackets from Father Mark Deering who congratulates them on a successful football season.

Kay, Barbara, and Karen "hang on" to their new jackets, the reward of a year's cheering.

COUGAR ENTHUSIASTS

ATHLETIC BANQUET

"TO THE VICTOR BELONGS THE SPOILS"

Walter Hackett, Baylor's defensive line coach, gives some vital pointers showing the worth of football.

Father Clasby, an Air Force Colonel, comments on the duties of the parents of today in molding the leaders of tomorrow.

Parents of the football players attend the annual Booster-sponsored banquet honoring their sons.

Jim Rushing, Mark Knapp, Charles Husbands and Ed Pugh convincingly and successfully debated the resolution: "Should labor unions have more government control?" at the annual Baylor Forensic Competition.

THE CHALLENGE OF COMPETITION

Winners in the Reicher High speech contest are on their way to compete in the Waco High Forensic tournament, where Bob Moore and Pat Beckham went to the finals.

Through training boys and girls in the use of all types of books, the Library Club, under the direction of Sister Josepha, helps to provide improved library service.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in this highly regarded organization is based on character, scholarship, leadership and service. Candidates are named by the faculty each spring and at the close of the following semester the election takes place. A formal induction ceremony was held in April when five seniors, charter members last year, welcomed the new members to their ranks. Pictured above are the new members: Margie Matus, Ann Warford, Bill Mostyn, Tom Cordaro, Charles Tusa, Bob Moore, Ed Maciula, Ernestine Matustik, Teresa Todaro, Allen Biedermann, Lynne Jones, Carol Lanham, Jerry Myers, and Robert Bush.

These seven boys and seven girls have shared every moment of Catholic High's history from the day six years ago when they became the first 7th grade in Waco's first Catholic High School. Girls - clockwise: Z. Rhine, S. Hernandez, S. Sharpe, R. Eberhart, K. Pugh, C. Cimo, P. Bowen. Boys - 1st row: E. Dulak, B. Mostyn, J. Wilkins, T. Cordaro, D. Crenwelge, J. Petty, and F. Davis.

CLASSMATES

FIRST THROUGH TWELFTH

Twelve years ago these nine graduates formed the nucleus of the initial first grade at the new St. Mary's School. Six years ago they eagerly inaugurated the first seventh grade class at Catholic High School. Now they claim the honor of being their school's fourth senior class and the first to graduate from REICHER Catholic High School. They are (starting from the top) Jim Petty, Floyd Davis, Tom Cordaro, Bill Mostyn, Ernest Dulak, Denis Crenwelge, John Wilkins, Camille Cimo, and Stevie Hernandez.

Collectively, this group has spent the grand total of 9720 days at Catholic High in addition to another 9720 at St. Mary's.

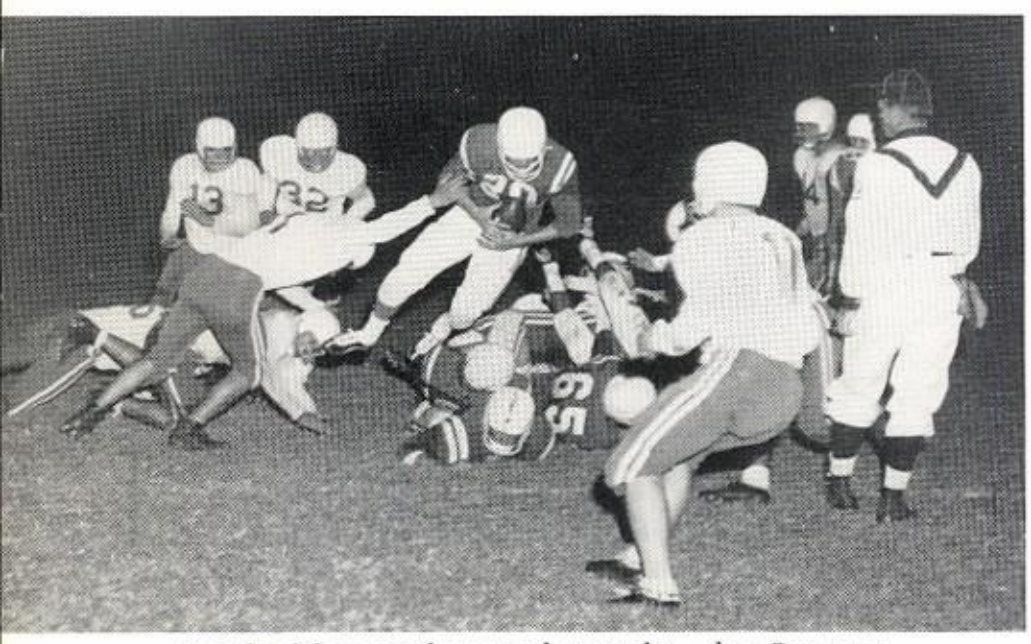
ACTIVITIES

The team crash onto the field through a vivid drawing of their mascot - a fierce cougar.



Sparked by good ground attacks, the Cougars won their third Homecoming against rival Central Catholic 36-16. The exciting victory was shared by a record number of loyal fans.

Morning Mass attended by faculty, students, and alumni, the decorating of cars, a parade, a glorious victory over

REICHER

GOOD TEAM . . . GOOD GAME

Peggy Bowen, happy and smiling, is crowned by captain John Wilkins. As her proud father watches, Ernest Dulak, co-captain, waits to present her with a souvenir football signed by the team.

Central made the first Reicher-sponsored Homecoming a memorable day.

The court and their escorts congratulate Peggy as she shows them the autographed football.

Queen Peggy with princesses Terese Todaro, Regina Moncus, Barbara Williams, Jerry Myers, Karen Johnson and Evelyn Christian.

HOMECOMING

GOOD DANCE . . . GOOD TIME

"Sail on! Cougars," the theme of the Homecoming, was carried out quite effectively from the boat in the gym to the water fountain in the entrance.

A royal setting for royalty!

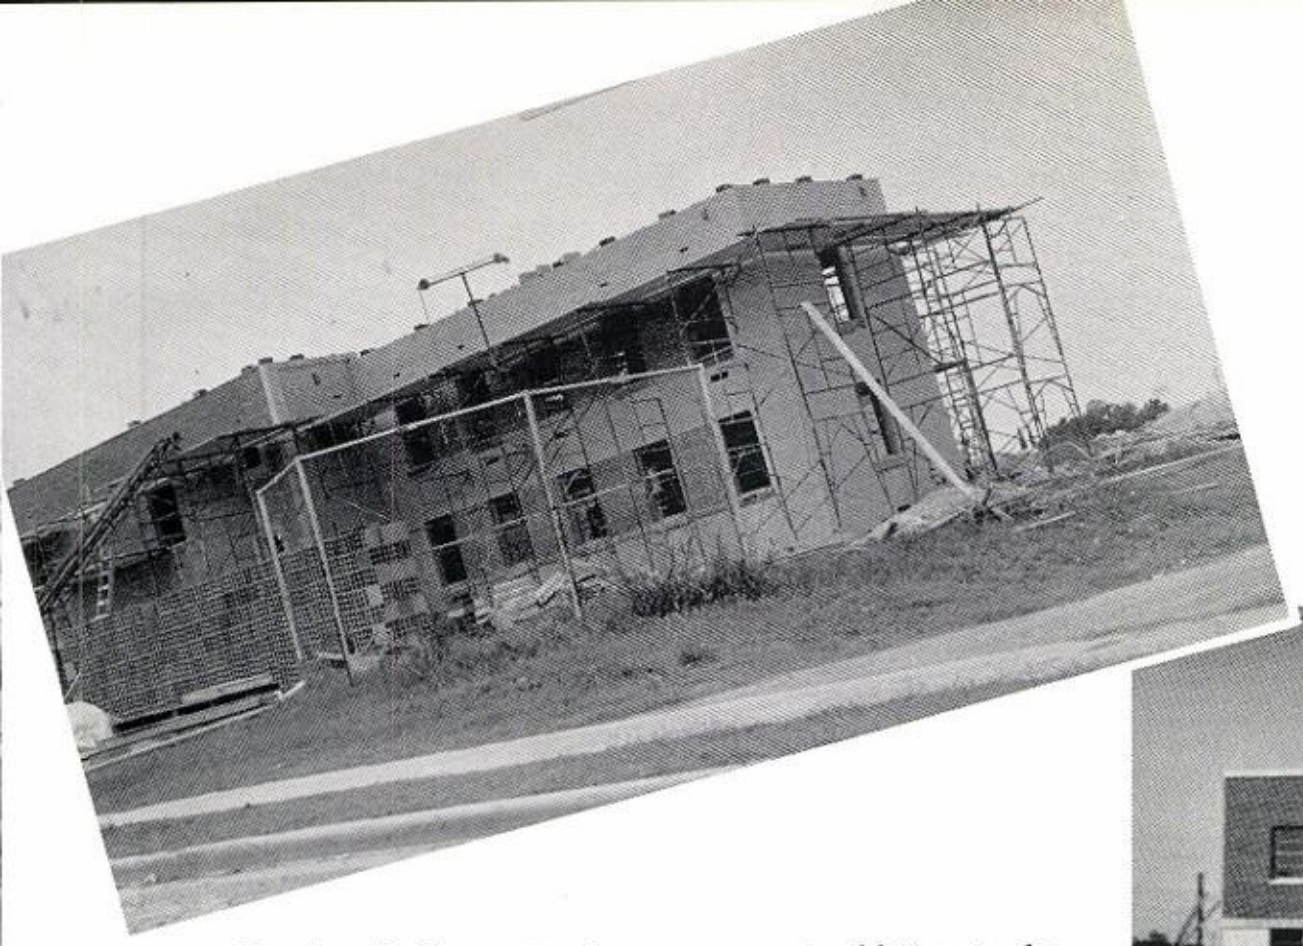
Mr. Henry Snider, a Waco Civic Theater leader, meets with the cast and stage crew of the senior play, "And Then Came Spring," which he directed. Clockwise, starting with Mr. Snider are: Ed Maciula, Peggy Bowen, Charles Husbands (standing), Mark and Richard Knapp, Jerry and Larry Schroeder, Ann Sutter, Barbara Williams, John Shirley, Charles Dougherty, Allen Biedermann, Stevie Hernandez, Carol Lanham, Sandra Sharpe, Rosemary Eberhart, and Bill Mostyn.

THE PLAY'S THE THING . . .

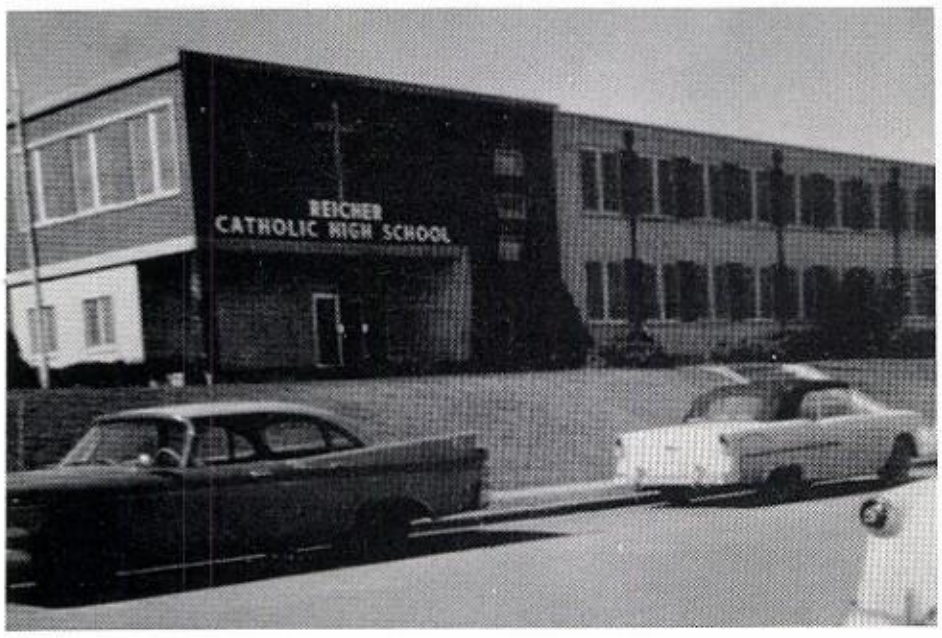
Various tableaux from the Nativity story formed the background for the Christmas Cantata sung by the senior high chorus and narrated by Jim Rushing.

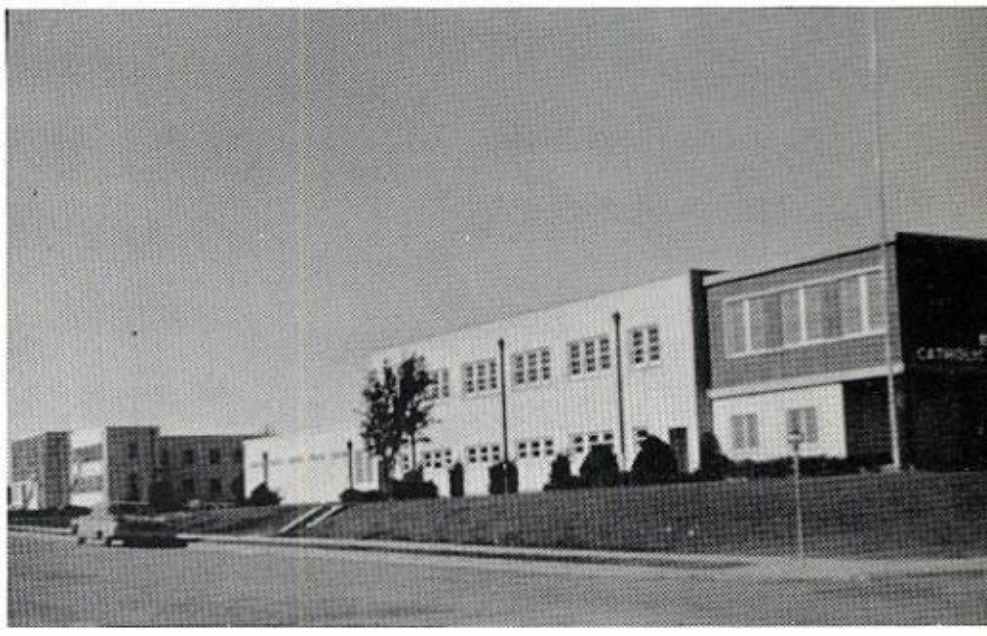
The program was opened by a group of seventh grade girls singing Christmas Folk songs.

CAMPUS VIEWS



St. Anne's Convent, the most recent addition to the school plant was begun last summer and ready for operation Big Move in February. Matching the school in style and structure, the L-shaped building provides the Sisters with a beautiful and comfortable home just west of the school on Windsor Avenue.





Reicher High School proudly crests one of the highest spots in Waco. An athletic stadium, on the northwest end of the school property, will be ready for use next fall. The stadium will accommodate 4000 persons.

REICHER CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL FROM THE REAR.

PARENT NIGHT

A chance to "see for themselves" what their sons and daughters do five or six hours a day, five days a week was given to parents during National Catholic Education Week. Parent Night was attended by nearly 200 adults eager to inspect the work exhibited in each of the class rooms and to meet the faculty.

Pascal's law (in a confined area, pressure is exerted equally in all directions) is demonstrated to a visiting little brother.

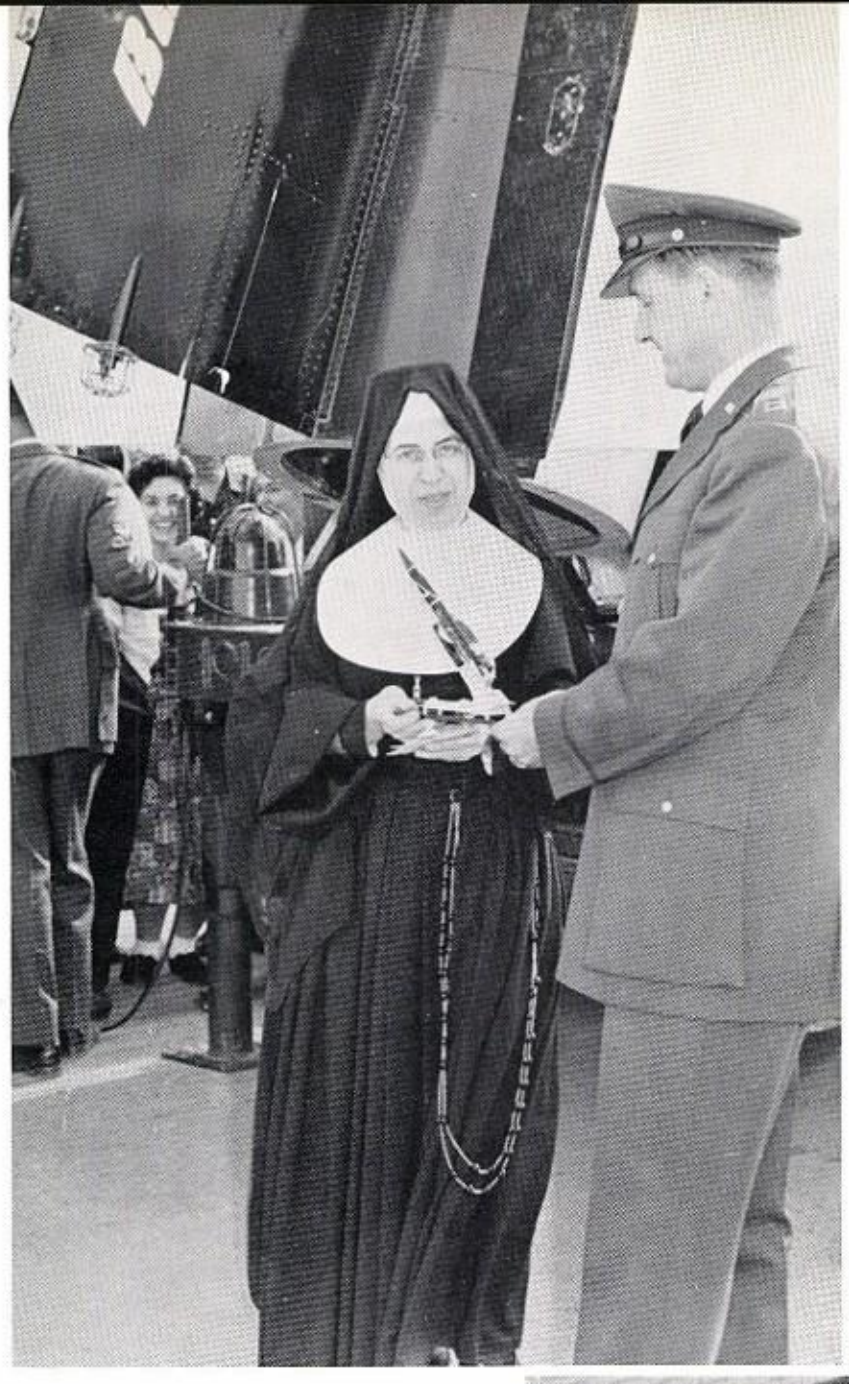
What better career than to be among God's chosen ones! A student directs the attention of two guests to a vocation display depicting the activities of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

The sciences bring about a better understanding of the world around us.

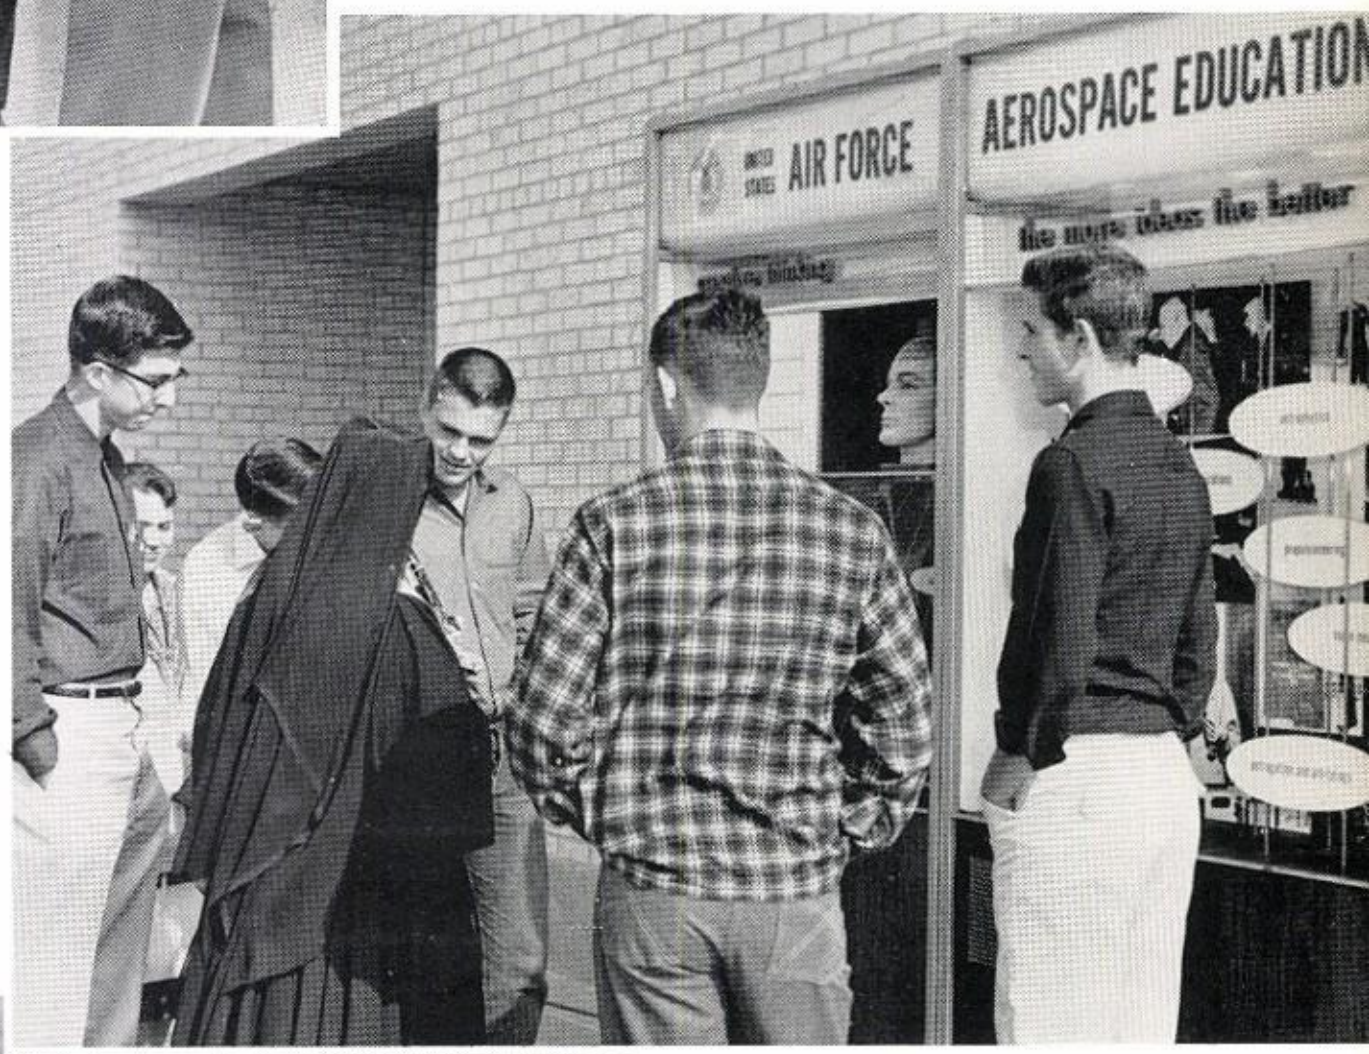
Student guides conducted guests to the various displays and exhibits while the Home Ec class provided a delightful "pause that refreshes" in the cafeteria.

AIR FORCE DAY

The U. S. Air Force last November afforded Reicher High students the opportunity of seeing an actual Bomarc missile, of learning how it is operated, and of realizing that the "more ideas the better" means that man's intellect is still one of his most precious possessions.



Sister Magdala, principal, accepts a miniature Bomarc missile for the school's trophy case.



Creative thinking is essential to progress. Aerospace Education as visualized by the Air Force would emphasize the need for more and more ideas.

Students listen attentively as an Air Force officer explains the basic principles involved in the atomic-powered rocket exhibited on the campus.

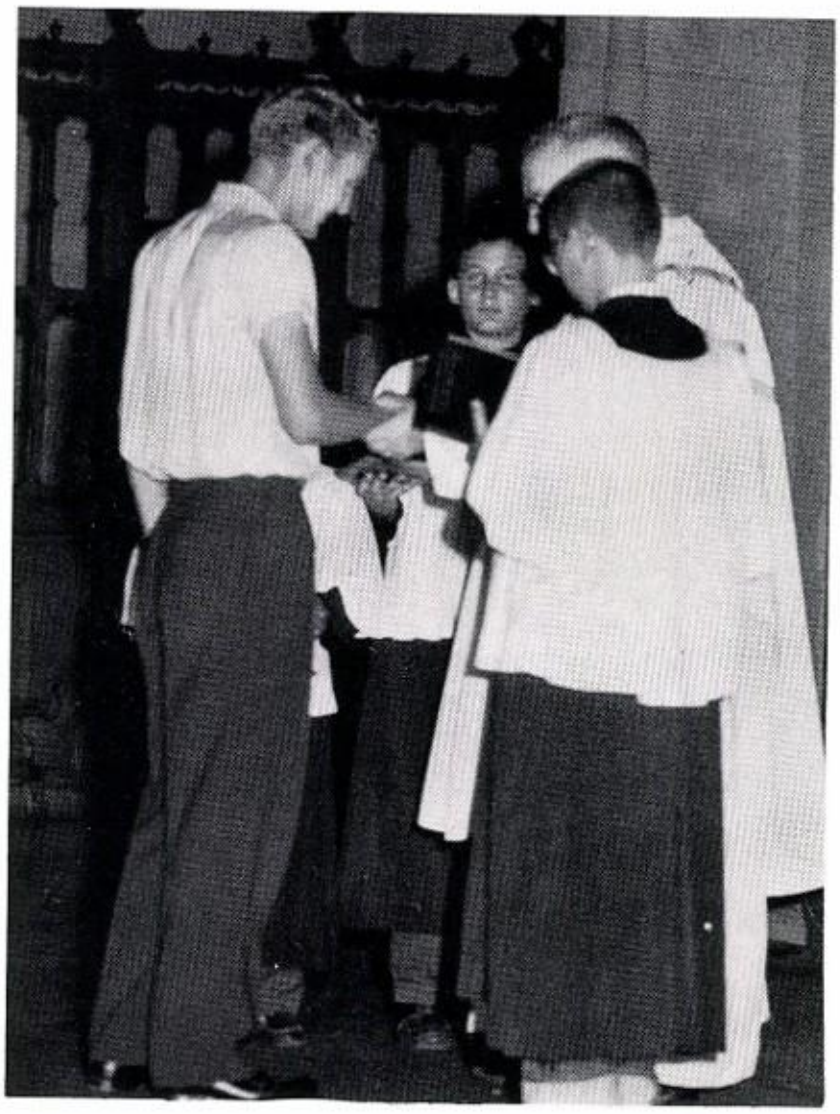
SENIOR MOODS AND MOMENTS

The life of a senior is one of mixed emotion - joy at the thought of graduation, reluctance at the thought of leaving it all. The first official act of the class last September was to have their rings blessed by Monsignor Kearns following a Mass at St. Mary's Church. On this occasion Monsignor disclosed to the seniors that Catholic High was to be called Reicher Catholic High in honor of Bishop Louis J. Reicher of Austin.



Monsignor Kearns congratulates Bill Wachsmann as he gives him his newly blessed ring.

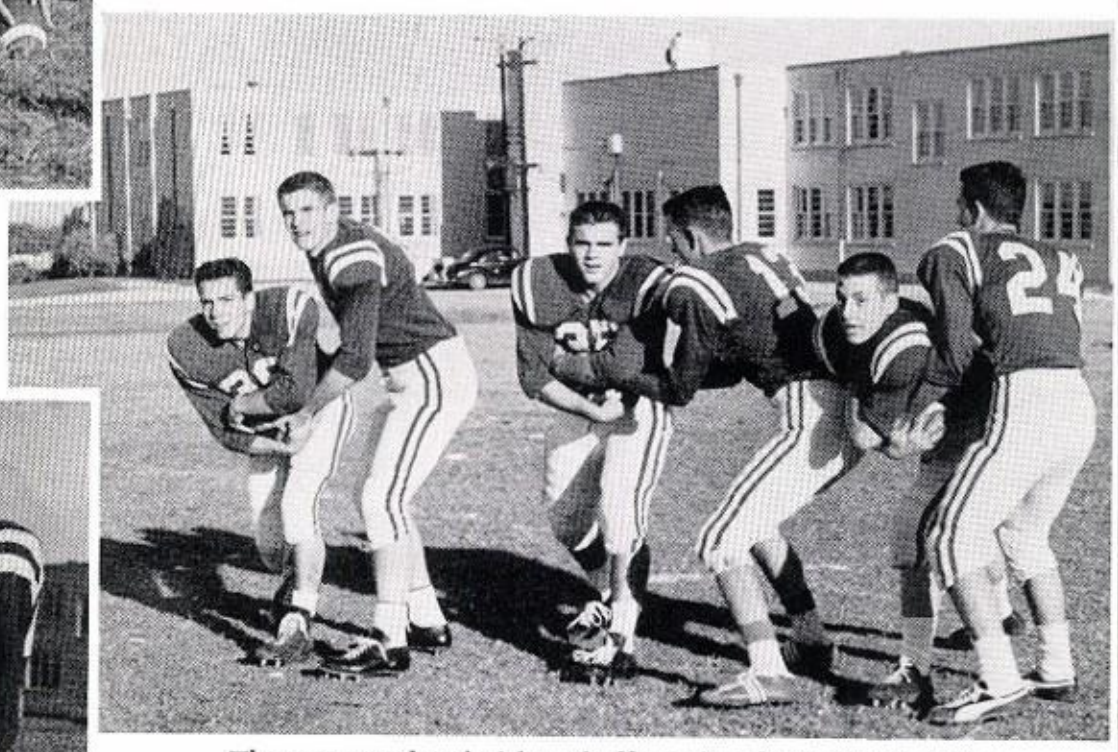
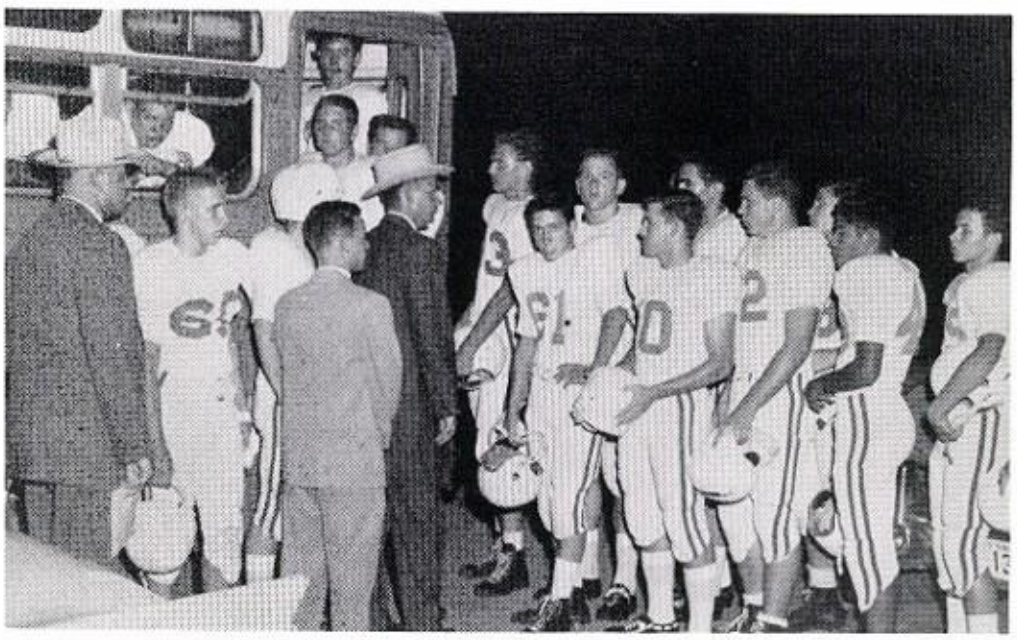
Bill Hearon, All-Stater Joe Bradley, and Kenneth Todar center the pigskin for the Cougars.



The quarterbacks' handoff to the fullback is demonstrated by Malachi Kelly, Tom Husbands, Bobby Landon, Ernest Dulak, Ed Pugh, and Charles Tusa.

Johnny Martin, Manuel Aleman, Pat Stoltze, All-Stater Johnny Wilkins, Olin Gwynne, and Bill Ficke handled the bulk of the ball carrying for the Cougars.



"Load up," and the Cougars are off to do battle with the Midway Panthers.

Coach Vasek reminds the seniors of the responsibilities that are theirs in leading the Cougars this year.

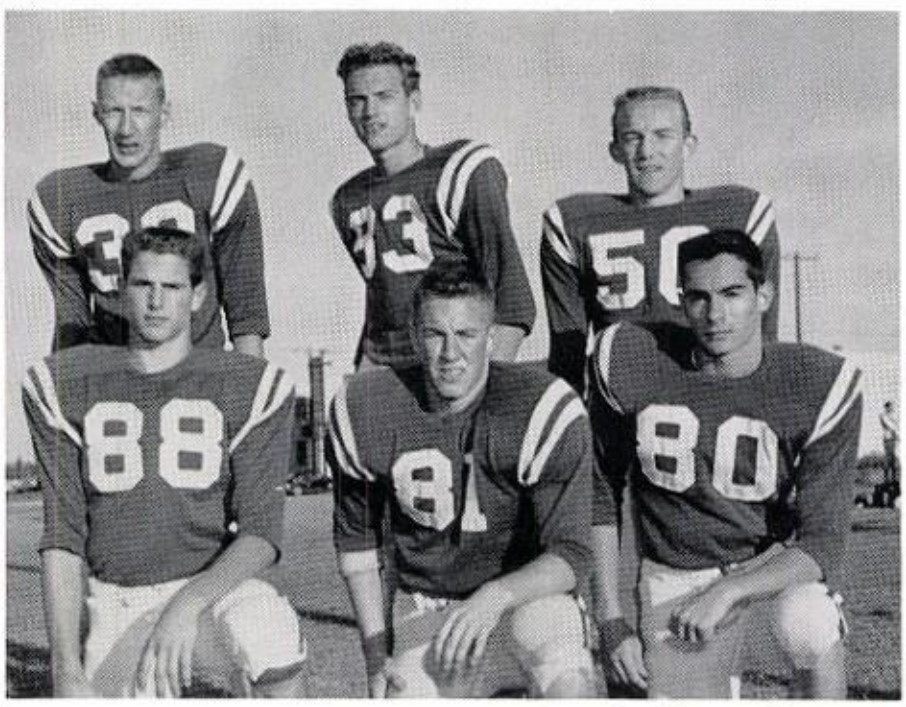
COUGARS

Speed and alertness marked RHS guards, J. I. Muhl, Jim Petty, Bill Lamb, Dean Caperton, Jim Rushing, Robert Donnellan, Charles Rhodes, Ed Maciula, and Al Biedermann.

Go, team! Loyal students invade St. Mark's territory (Dallas), to help the Cougars defeat the Lions.

"We'll use a six-one-four defense with the . . ." says head coach John Vasek as he and assistant coach John Finn plan strategy at a typical pregame conference.

And they say "linemen are dumb!" Surely these Cougar tackles, Bill Williams, Bill Mostyn, Gene Leuschner, Don Herring, Dale Stark, Richard Jarrell, Tom Honton, Mike Kelly, and B. H. Hensley have intelligent faces!

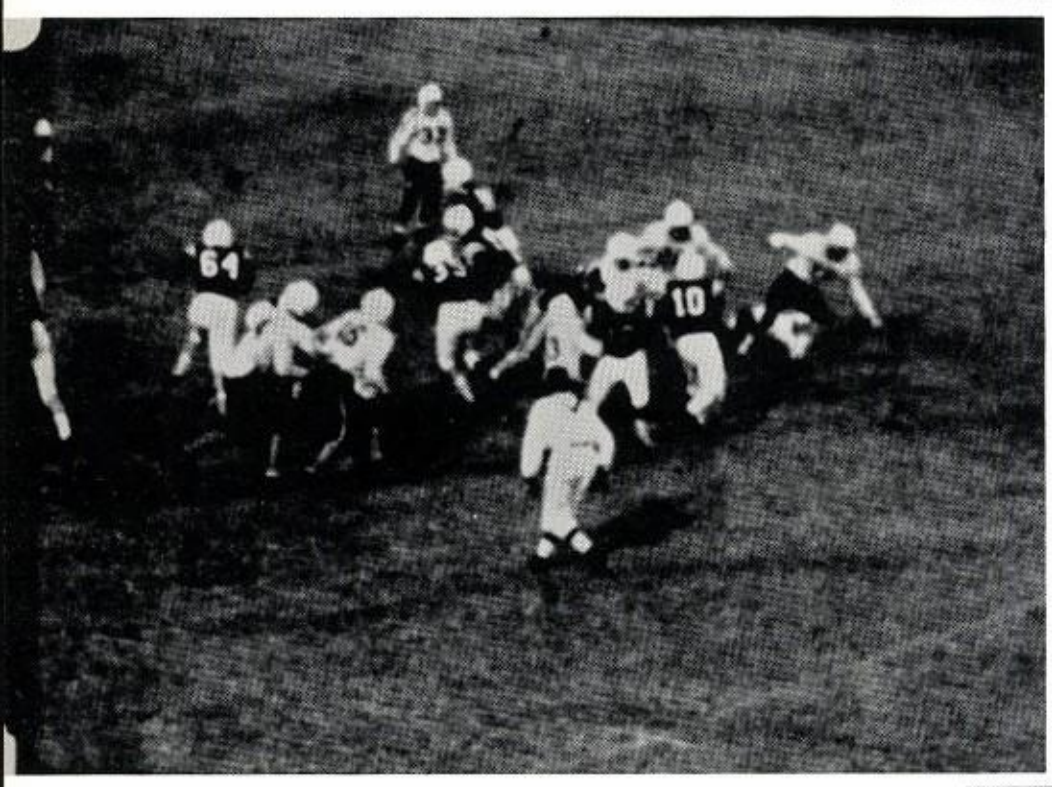


Cougar ends are as good as the best with Jeff Farmer, Frank Fritch, Tom Cordaro, Bob Moore, Robert Braden, and Charles Langlotze doing the receiving.

GRIDIRON

Gwynne hands to Dulak on a punt return against Central Catholic.

Jeff Farmer picks up yardage after catching a needed pass.

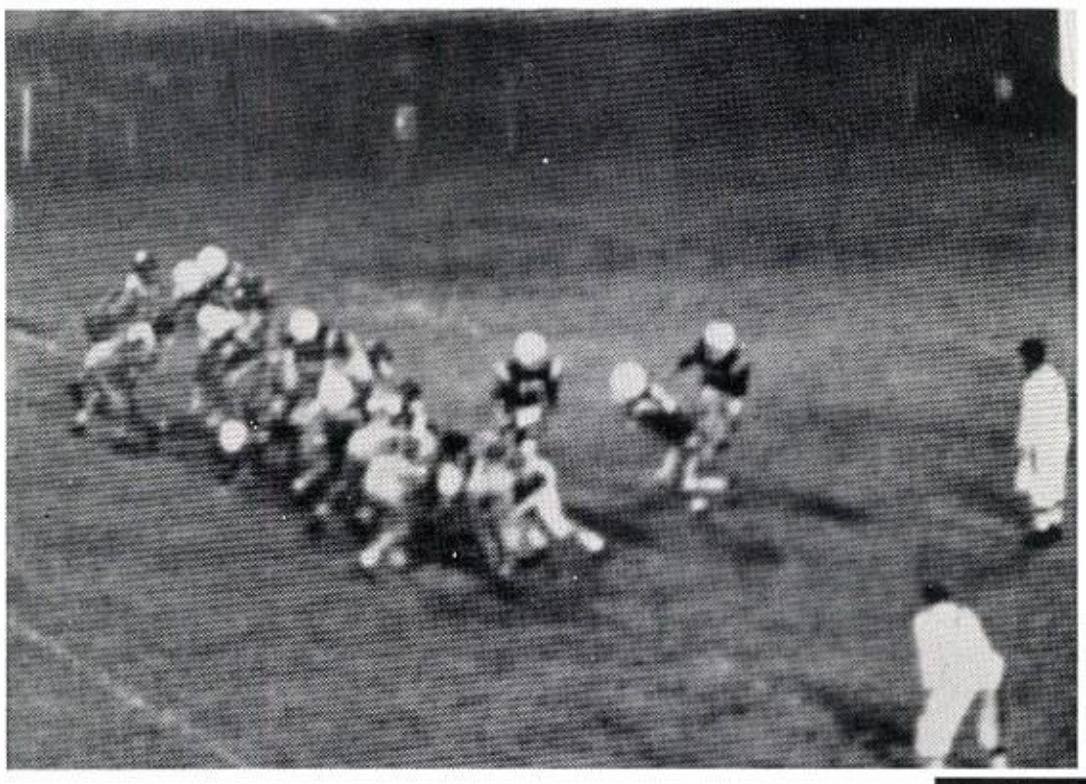


Bob Landon shows the fine points of running the draw play against Central's defense.

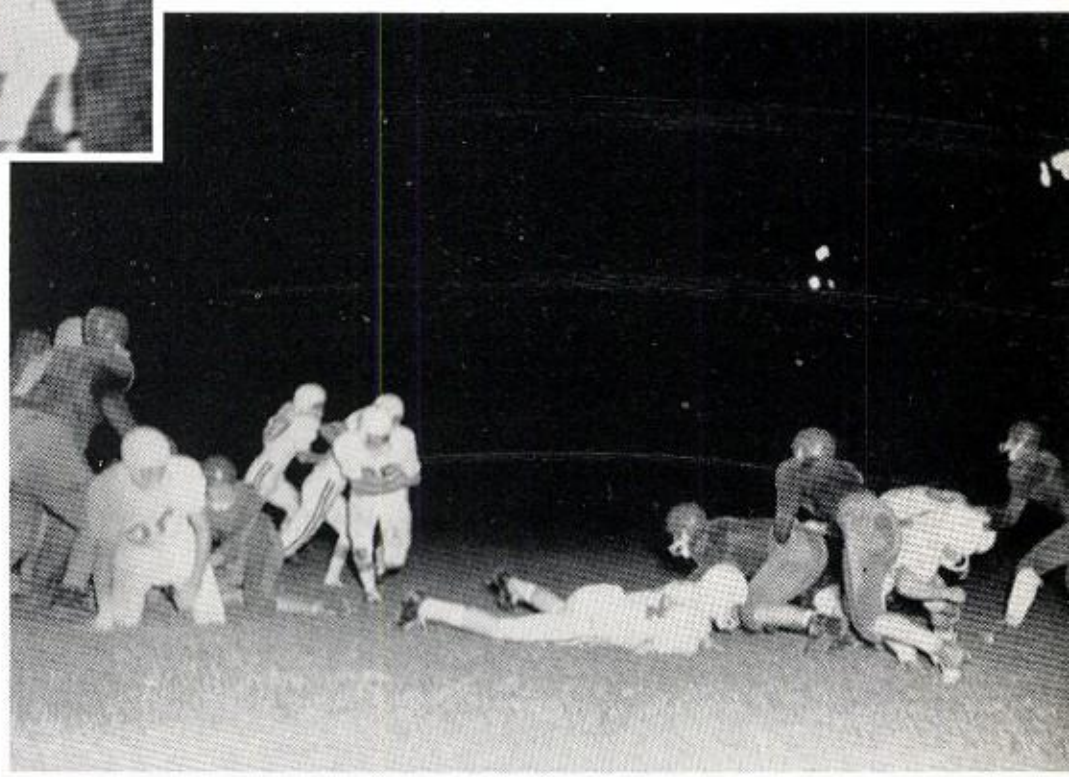
Ernest Dulak fakes a pass and rolls around left end for a gain against Jesuit of Dallas.

MOMENTS

The Cougar defense tightens up to hold back a Jesuit runner.



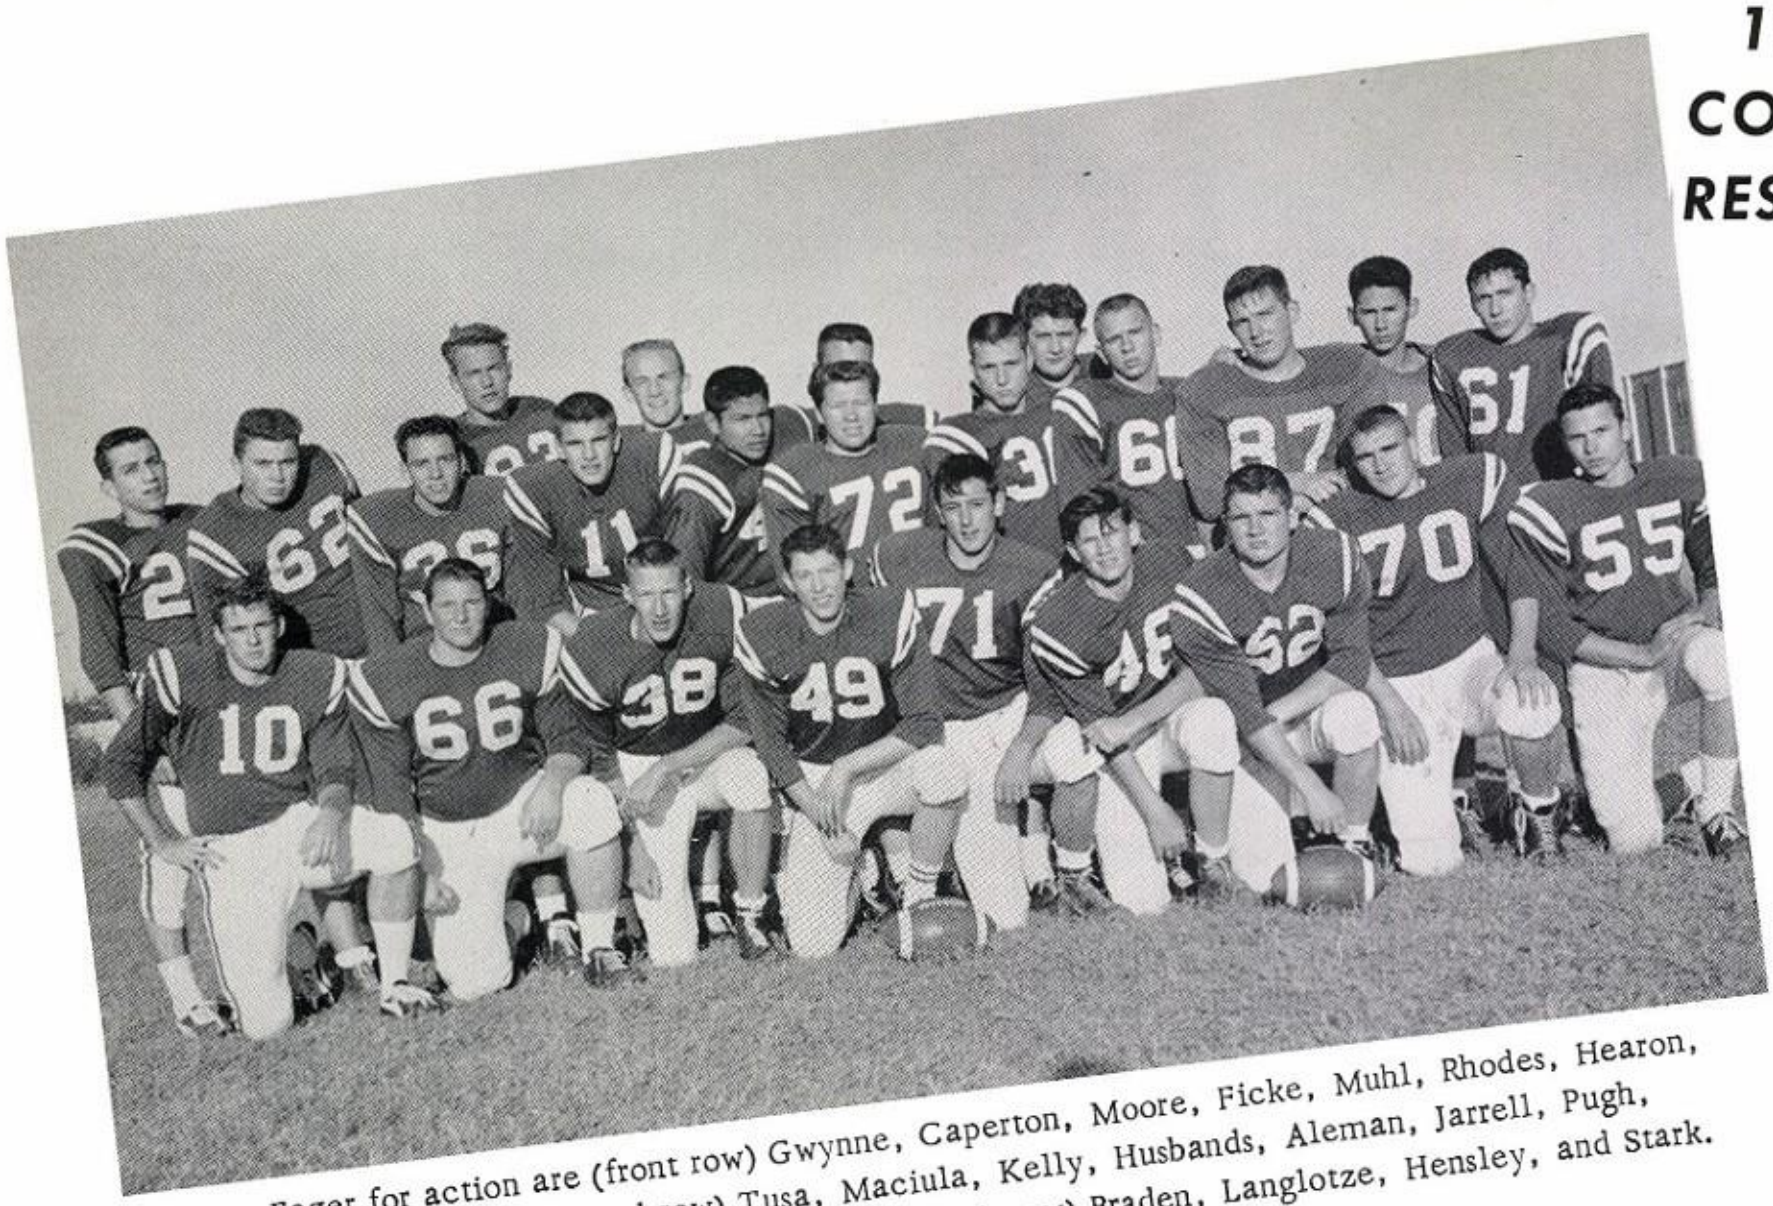
Wilkins' specialty - the dive play - was well used in the Jesuit game.



Faking a handoff to Bobby Landon, Dulak and Stoltze run around end.

"Not this time," says Charles Tusa as he brings down a Midway runner with Olin Gwynne ready to assist.

1959 COUGAR RESERVES



Eager for action are (front row) Gwynne, Caperton, Moore, Ficke, Muhl, Rhodes, Hearon, Honton and Todar; (second row) Tusa, Maciula, Kelly, Husbands, Aleman, Jarrell, Pugh, Rushing, M. Kelly, Rioja, and Donnellan; (back row) Braden, Langlotze, Hensley, and Stark.

"C . . . O . . . U"

may be a long, slow way to spell anything as fast as the Cougars, but it's a yell that the team loves to hear. Responsible for rousing enthusiasm at the games were Tim Tate, Kay Herring, Bubba Davis, Barbara Williams, Bill Wachsmann, Karen Johnson, and Chuck Flood.

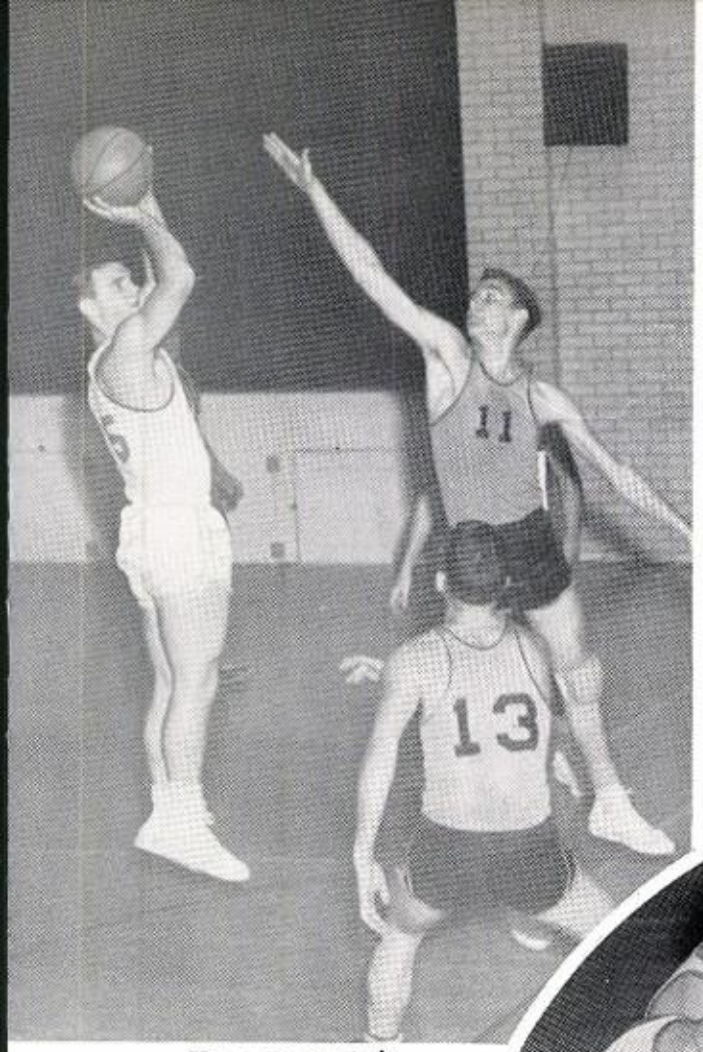
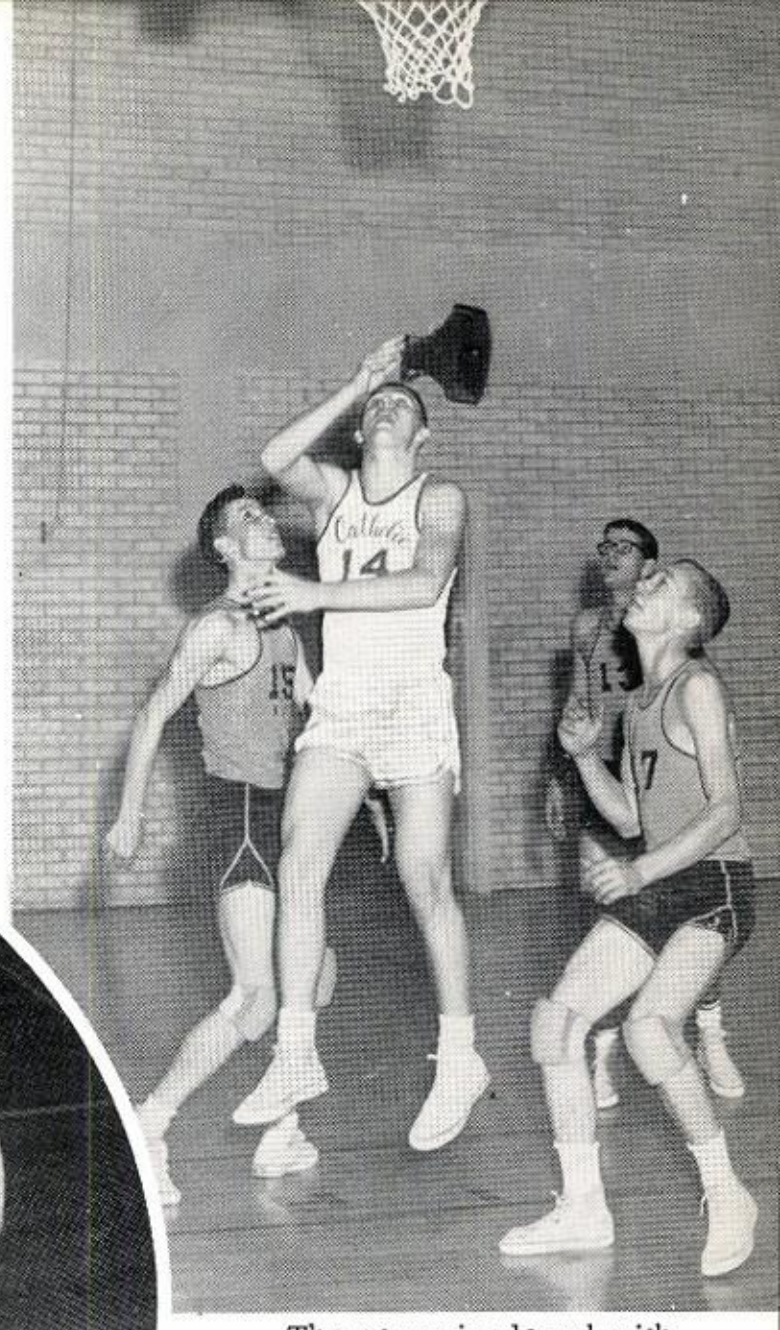
Academy award night? No, but trophies were flying w Barbara Williams placing third in the queen contest, Jeff Joe Bradley, and John Wilkins getting All-Tournament hon and Coach Finn receiving a watch for heading the team.

HARDWOOD ACTION

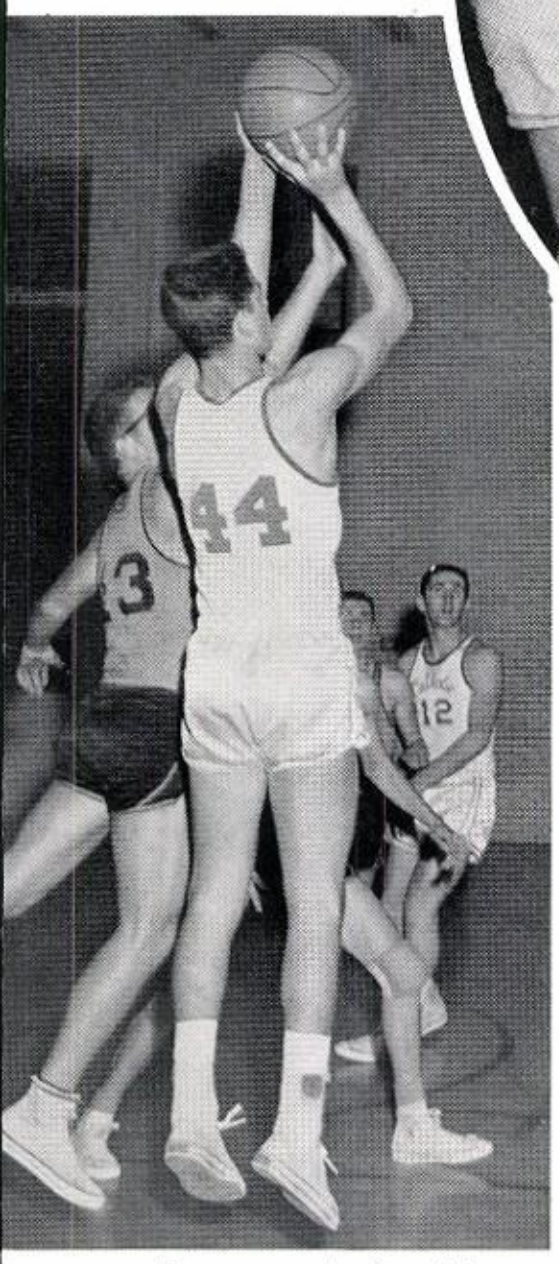


Two to one is really not fair!

Coach Finn huddles his Cougars before the Laneri game.

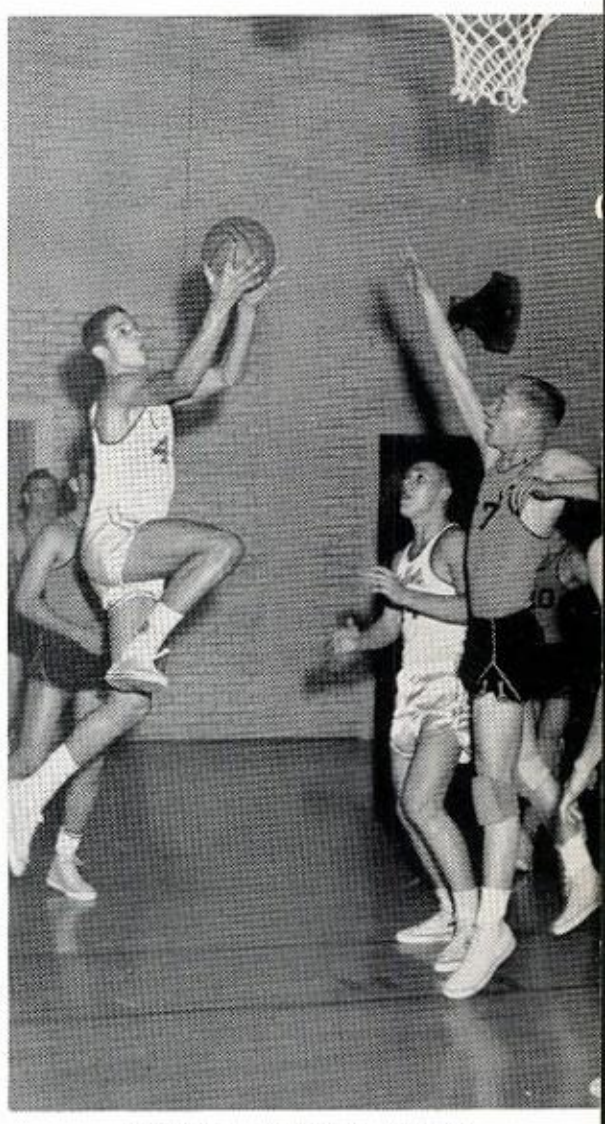


The game is played with a ball, Johnny!

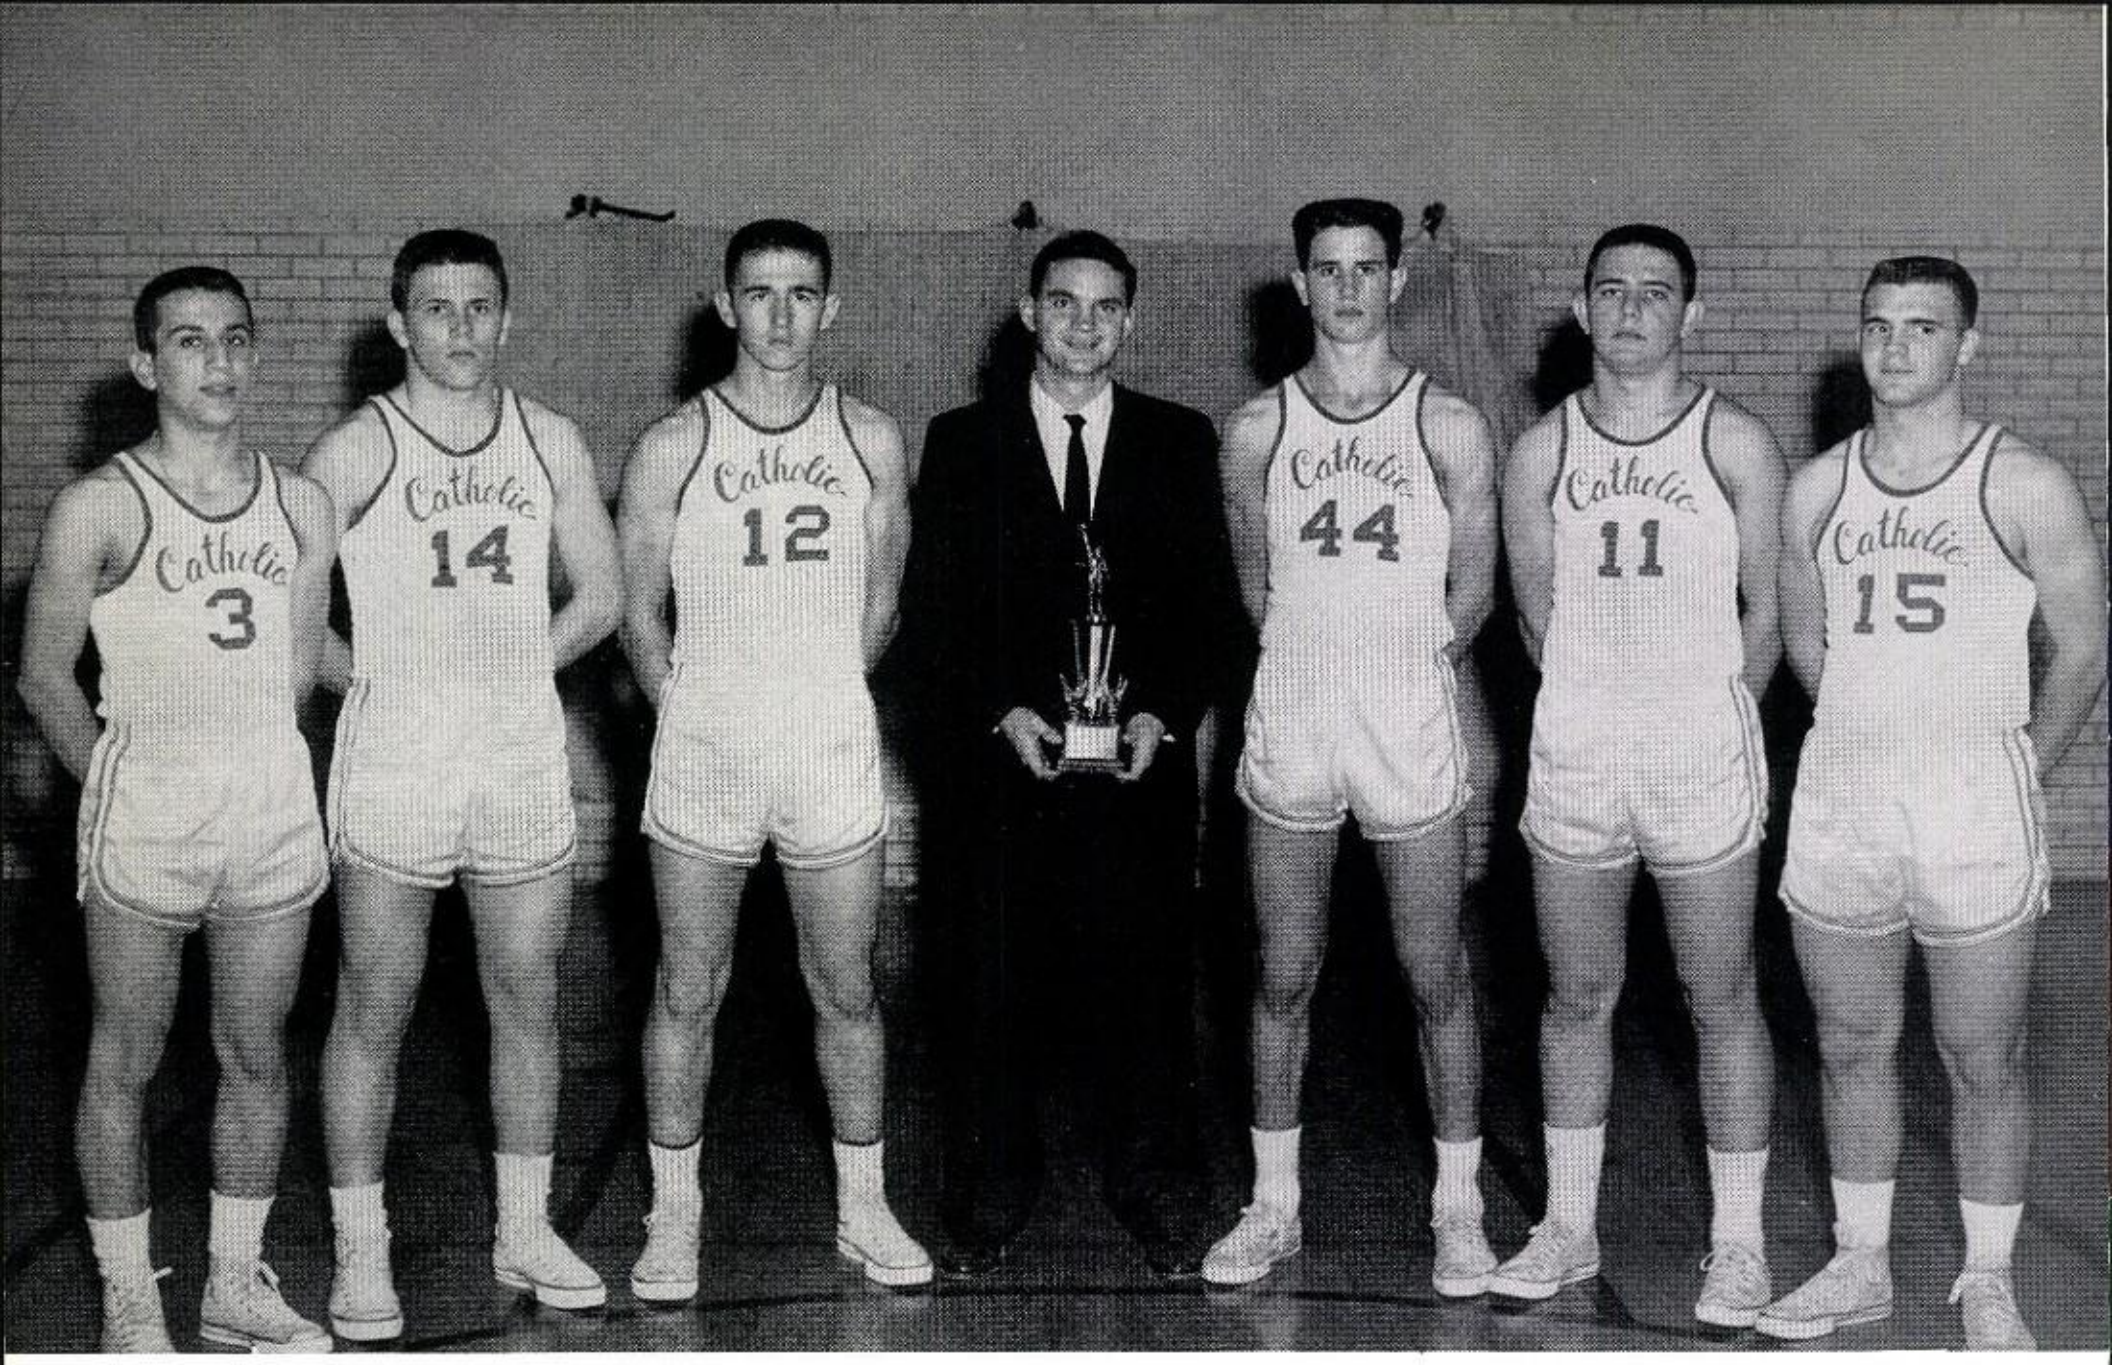


Two more in the side pocket!

Open mouth and insert ball!



Where ya goin', Jeff?



Coach John Finn proudly displays the trophy won in the Marlin tournament by Charles Tusa, Johnny Wilkins, Bill Williams, Jeff Farmer, Joe Bradley and Bob Landon.

COUGAR CAGERS

The Reicher Cougars initiated Coach John Finn into the ranks of high school basketball mentors by compiling an excellent 21 - 11 record.

During this 1960 season, they participated in the Connally, the Hubbard, the Marlin, and the State (San Antonio) tournaments. The biggest achievement of the hard-wood season was taking the Hubbard tournament. In the championship game they came from behind to beat the host team, Hubbard, 58 - 39. The Cougars also won the consolation title in the Marlin tournament by trimming Chilton 67 - 38.

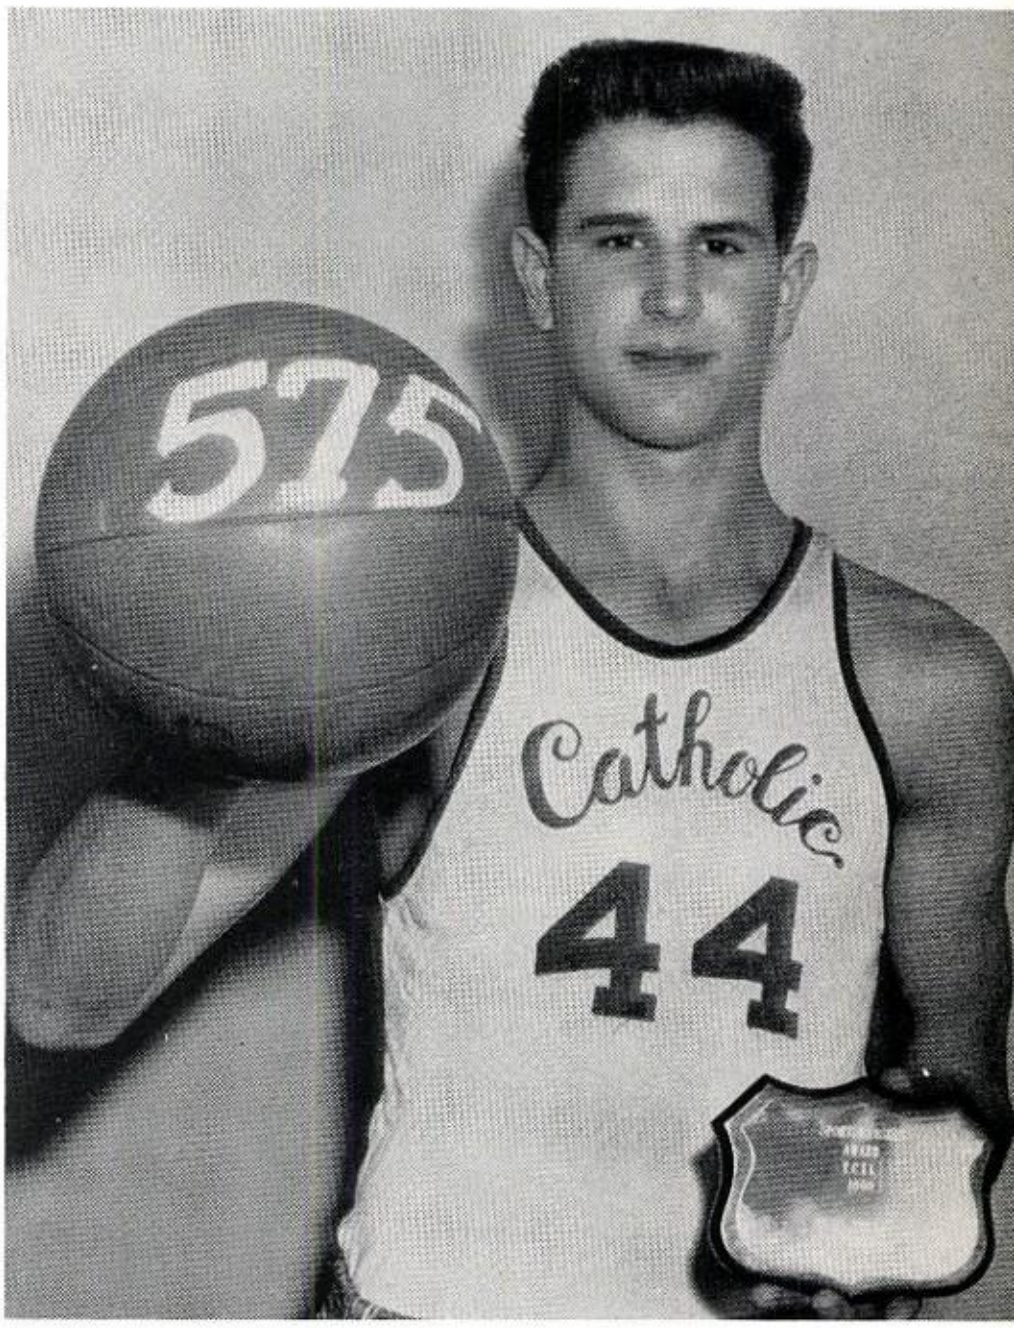
BASKETBALL SWEETHEART

Each team in the annual Hubbard Invitational Tournament was represented by a previously elected Basketball Sweetheart. From these fourteen girls a group of judges selected a queen (from Groesbeck), and two princesses one of whom was RHS's Barbara Williams.



Jeff Farmer - high point man in Central Texas basketball with 575 points and winner of the sportsmanship award from the 1960 Texas Catholic Interscholastic League basketball tournament - is a boy to remember since he has one more year at RHS and you'll be hearing his name during that year.

HIGH-POINT MAN

TEAM

Fifteen players, a coach and a couple of managers - that's what it takes to make a basketball team. When John Finn is the coach, Carrigan and Jarvis the managers, and Gwynne, Sharp, Fritch, Farmer, Williams, Bradley, Wilkins, Landon, Aleman, Husbands, Fickey, Smith, Frank, Chauviere, and Tusa the players, the result is a tournament championship and a 21 - 11 season record.

ENTER . . . RHS TRACK

1960 brought a new sport to the athletic department. Cougar trackmen participated in meets at Taylor, Irving, Glen Rose, Killeen, Valley Mills, and in the State Track Meet at the University of Dallas.

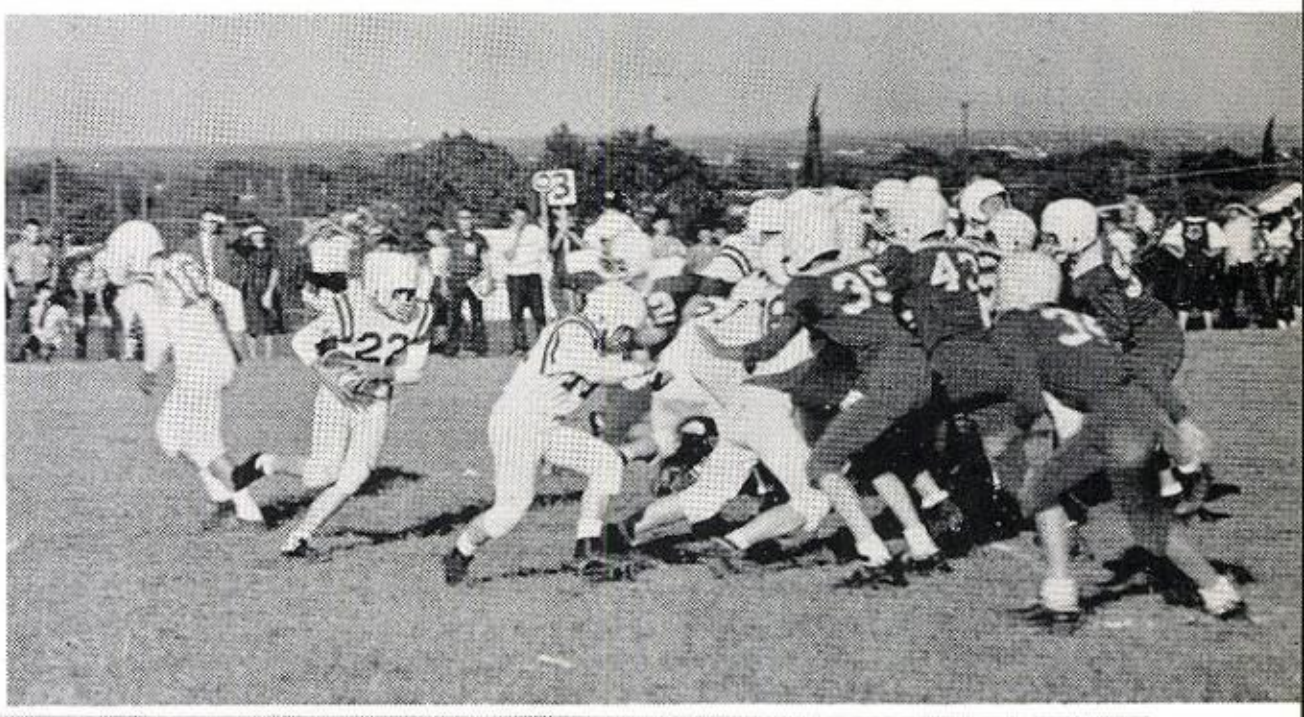
BASEBALL HOPEFULS . . . "TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME"

JUNIOR HIGH SPORTS

Steve Landon gains much-needed yardage against Drane of Corsicana. The game was played on the Cougar home field.

V..I..C..T..O..R..Y

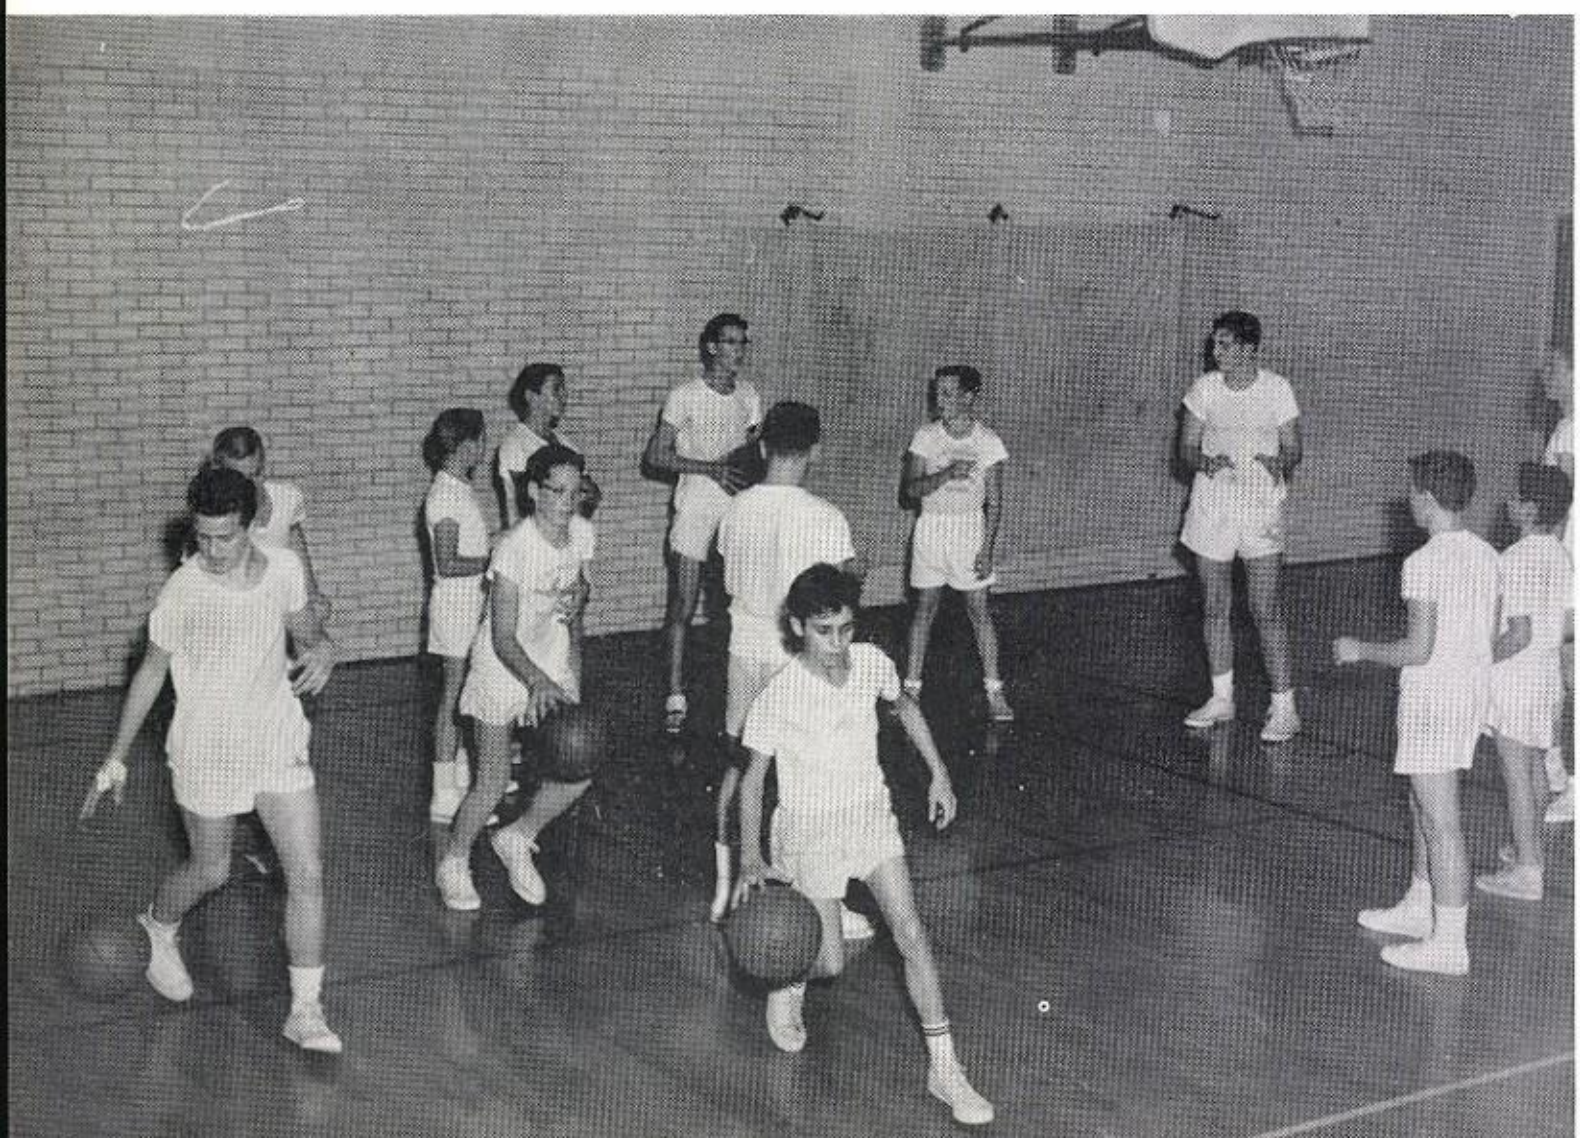
Animated, enthusuastic and loyal, the junior high cheerleaders, Patty Bowen, Pat Walker, Carol Boyd, Jo-Ann Crenwelge, Brenda Brown, and Claire Moncus never missed a game!



These boys not only remained undefeated but also captured the Diocesan trophy: Horsak, Schubert, Stark, Callaway, Matthews, Hernandez, Bradley, George, Henry, Schroeder, Williams, Veselka, first row. Christopherson, McGee, Brunjes, Sulak, Paulk, Scott, Roberson, Tighe, Kearney, Machos, Landon, Coach Greco, second row. Finn, J. Ortiz, V. Ortiz, Muhl, Langlotze, J. Tighe, Malloy, Richey, Fickey, third row.

The Junior High Cougars coached by Kenneth Koechig include C. Hand, Pugh, Carrigan, Matthews, Hicks, Strong, Nemmer, first row. Espinoza, manager, Maloy, Honton, Landon, Malloy, J. Ortiz, Langlotze, Muhl, Myers, manager, second row. Fickey, Todar, Frank, J. Tighe, Mulligan, V. Ortiz, Finn, third row.

CUBS NOW . . . COUGARS LATER



Basketball players - at least the kind that make good Cougars in later years - don't just happen. Hours, days, weeks, even years of patient practice with ball and basket are required.
